Tillotson Given Parole—Home Christmas

. . . Served 15 Years In Killing Of Cherry County Rancher

By ARCH DONOVAN
Star Staff Writer

"I think God will forgive him, so why shouldn't man?" pleaded Mrs. Millie Oller of Chillicothe, Ill., seeking parole for her brother, William Tillotson, 42, who has served 15 years in the state penitentiary for second degree murder in connection with the shooting to death of Walter Adamson, Cherry County rancher, during an argument.

The State Pardon Board granted Tillotson parole for the remainder of the sentence which will expire in December 1955.

County Attorney Bryan Quigley of Cherry County opposed clemency as did Erwin Adamson and his sister, children of the slain man. Quigley contended that it was important for the protection of society that others realize the penalty would be harsh if they took human life.

Attorney General C. S. Beck pointed out that the law provides that the pardon board "do not consider guilt or innocence or anything that bears thereon" in deliberations over clemency pleas.

Celebration Planned

After the board's action, Mrs. Oller said Christmas plans of the family have been held in abeyance awaiting the board action. Now she says she hopes to have a Christmas celebration at her home with Tillotson's brother and two other sisters in attendance.

"It will be the finest Christmas we ever had," she said with tears rolling down her cheeks. "I know I should be smiling," she told those trying to comfort her, "but I am so happy I can't keep from crying."

An air of mystery has developed over the years as to the real reason for the emotional outburst that led to the shooting. The prosecution contended it was anger because Adamson had released Tillotson from his job on the ranch.

'Love Letters'

Tillotson in turn has insisted that it was over "love letters" that Adamson wrote to his sister who a few years earlier had worked on the ranch. Under direct questioning, he said that the rancher thought he had the letters and became profanely abusive in demanding them back, which started the argument.

"As the man is dead, I will take all blame," he said until directly questioned. "I am very sorry. If it had to be done over again it would be better for me to be killed."

Questioned as to whether he believed life in prison was too long a sentence for a person who took another's life, Tillotson evaded a direct answer saying, "I beg of you for clemency."

Model Prisoner

Tillotson is looked upon by prison employees from the warden to guards as the No. 1 model prisoner. During the 15 years of his confinement, he has never been given a black mark of any kind. Quigley admitted that "he made a good record while out in the country" but that did not prevent the slaying.

Through the years the brothers and sisters have been frequent visitors and appeared when his first appeal for clemency was denied in 1947 and again when the life sentence was commuted to 30 years at a hearing in 1948.

In addition to the family, chaplains and church workers who have known him over the years appeared in his behalf. Strenuous opposition has always been voiced from the community in letters and petitions.

An Oklahoma City contractor made the trip to Lincoln to assure the board that he would provide employment at from $350 to $400 a month on a pipe line project in Oklahoma and Illinois.

'Based On Lie'

Quigley charged that Tillotson's testimony was "based on a lie" and said that the letters were brought into the trial by "an expert criminal lawyer" hired for the defense and made a "farce of the defense" because the letters had been written years before.

"I pray for hate to go out of the hearts of others and that they will grant forgiveness," Mrs. Oller said in pointing out that her brother can still have a long and useful life and make it a success. "It is not the years they serve, but what they have in their hearts. He will repent for years on the outside as well as on the inside."

Sentence of Romie M. Barnes, 58, sentenced to life imprisonment in 1941 for the knife slaying of a fellow railroad worker at Elm Creek was commuted to 30 years. The board was told the incident occurred during a drunken poker game.

Sisters Speak

Drama entered the hearing after Barnes had given his testimony and left the room. Two sisters, Mrs. Jeanette Ourth, Elmhurst, Ill., and Mrs. Corrine Brown, San Jose, Calif., were permitted to speak.

Gov. Peterson queried them, "Now for the sake of your brother as well as society, should this man be allowed to go free?"

"I'll be honest," Mrs. Brown responded, "I don't think so." She turned to her sister and said, "I know you'll think I'm cruel, Jeanette, but that's the way I feel."

"But you don't know him," Mrs. Brown responded. "You haven't seen him. Haven't you got doctors and specialists here who could tell whether he's straightened out?" she appealed to the board.

"Unfortunately, no," the governor told her.

Harold W. Schaeffer, 30, Omaha, serving a two year term for issuing no account checks, was granted commutation and discharge.

Paul J. Ziemba, 30, Omaha, sentenced to four years for motor vehicle homicide, was granted commutation to April 1, 1953. In an attempt to escape police after a grocery store burglary his truck was wrecked, killing one of his companions.

Robert J. Bevins, 24, companion of Ziemba, serving three years for the burglary, was paroled. Ziemba contended that because Bevins was the son of a former state senator, publicity given the affair had adversely affected him.

Rose "Ghost Bear" Reynolds, 37, received commutation and discharge from the women's reformatory from a 1-2 year sentence for forgery in Scotts Bluff County. She will return to the Pine Ridge, S. D., Indian reservation.

Generals And Dulles Discuss Korea Truce

Emphasis Placed On World Problems; Further High Level Meetings Planned

NEW YORK (AP)—President-elect Eisenhower and Gen. Douglas MacArthur discussed across a luncheon table Wednesday the problem of how to achieve peace in Korea and the rest of the world.

"We discussed the possibility of peace in Korea with particular reference to the world situation, in which, of course, such Korean peace would have to be determined," Eisenhower said afterward.

Eisenhower and MacArthur conferred for more than two hours as guests of John Foster Dulles, secretary of state designate, in Dulles' town house on Manhattan's Upper East Side.

The President-elect described it as a "very enjoyable luncheon." MacArthur said it was a "very pleasant reunion with the President-elect."

The meeting stemmed from a Dec. 5 speech in which MacArthur said there "is a clear and definite solution" to the stalemated Korean fighting.

Neither Eisenhower nor MacArthur gave any details on the views they exchanged nor did they reveal whether they were agreed on a course to follow to achieve peace.

Informal Report

Dulles and his two guests emerged from the house together after the session, and the two military men gave an informal report on it to more than 100 newsmen and photographers congregated about the entrance.

Eisenhower spoke in a low voice that could be heard only by those nearest him.

Later, back at Eisenhower's Hotel Commodore headquarters, he gave a recapitulation of his remarks, as he recalled them, to James C. Hagerty, his press secretary, who relayed them to the press. They were as follows:

"I have just met with two old friends for a very enjoyable luncheon.

Peace Topic

"Our general topic of conversation was peace. We discussed the possibility of peace in Korea with particular reference to the World situation, in which, of course, such Korean peace would have to be determined."

"I hope my former commander will say a few words."

Eisenhower had served under MacArthur years ago in The Philippines, and later when MacArthur was chief of staff.

MacArthur told the cluster of newsmen at the Dulles home that the discussion of peace in Korea and in the world in general."

He remarked that he had not seen Eisenhower for six years and that the meeting marked the resumption of a friendship of 35 years.

Red Officers School Blasted By Superforts

SEOUL (Thursday) (INS)—American B-29 Superforts flew deep into northwest Korea last night and dumped 100 tons of explosives on the Communist officers training school and supply area at Yongsan, ten miles north of Anju on the Chongchon River.

Two other Superforts struck the smaller Communist officers staff school south of Kyomipo.

Red night fighters were observed over both targets and some enemy flak burst in the sky around the Superforts but the attacks were carried out with "good to excellent" results.

On the ground, South Korean troops repulsed three small Communist jabs at Sniper Ridge while Red artillery fire along the front dropped to its lightest volume in weeks with only 4,239 rounds being expended against Allied positions.

American Sabrejets soaring over Mig Alley Wednesday knocked down one Russian-built MIG-15 and sent another four home with battle damage.

The Sabres, flying top cover for low-flying fighter bombers, ranged far into North Korea despite winds that rose to 100-mile-an-hour gale proportions.

Siamese Twins Are Separated In Dramatic 12-Hour Operation

. . . 15-Month-Old Boys Critical After Unparalleled Surgery

By ROBERT R. GOLDENSTEIN and WILLIAM J. CONWAY

CHICAGO (AP)—The 15-month-old Brodie boys, Siamese twins, were separated Wednesday night in a dramatic unparalleled 12-hour, 40-minute operation that culminated more than a year of medical planning and preparation.

The twins had been joined at the top of their heads, and the separation was the first successful one of its kind in medical history.

The boys were given anesthetic at 7:50 a.m. (CST) at the Illinois Neuropsychiatric Institute, part of the University of Illinois Medical Center on Chicago's West Side. They were separated at 6:26 p.m. They left the operating room, alive and in critical condition at 8:30 p.m.

Additional surgery and patchup work was required on each twin after the separation.

Outcome Unknow

A spokesman at the hospital said "the ultimate outcome of the operation is as yet unknown."

After the operation, the tiny patients, Roger Lee and Rodney Dee Brodie of Moline, Ill., were taken to the pediatrics ward. There, for the first time in their lives, they were placed in separate beds.

Their condition was listed as critical, a state regarded as natural in view of the protracted surgery.

The parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hoyt Brodie, watched tensely as the babies emerged from the operating room and were rolled past them to the ward.

Looks Good

"It sure looks good to see them apart," said Brodie, a 35-year-old farmer and meat cutter, who with Mrs. Brodie had waited in the hospital throughout the long operation.

The Brodies are parents of four other children, all normal.

The operation was carried out by a medical team of at least 15. Included were neuro-surgeons, plastic surgeons, anesthetists, pediatricions and nurses. Laboratory technicians also stood by during the history-making surgery.

Doctors said the odds were against the twins survival from the start but that the boys were "unbelievably hearty."

Stanley Olson, dean of the University of Illinois College of Medicine, said the twins still had a "long way to go" before their survival is assured.

He said the post-operative period usually is more critical than the operation itself.

Olson said the surgeons who performed the operations were "too exhausted" to give newsmen a detailed account of the operation Wednesday night. He said the details would be made available Thursday.

Cost of Wednesday's surgery and eight previous preparatory operations was borne by the university without charge to the parents.

The Brodies live on an 87-acre farm near Moline. Brodie, 34, farmed the land last summer and has been employed as a meat cutter in a Moline warehouse this winter.

Tito Ends Diplomatic Vatican Connection

. . . Stepinac Nomination Called Slap

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (AP)—Premier Marshal Tito's Communist government cut diplomatic relations with the Vatican Wednesday, charging in effect that the recent nomination of Archbishop Alojzijc Stepinac to the College of Cardinals was a slap in the face.

The Holy See was accused anew of hostility toward Yugoslavia and interference in her internal affairs. Deputy Foreign Minister Ales Bebler called in the Vatican's charge d'affaires, Msgr. Silvio di Oddi, to notify him of the break and asked him to leave as soon as possible.

Yugoslavia has had no diplomat at the Vatican since last year, when Charge d'Affaires Oren Ruzic packed up and left an otherwise deserted legation building. Yugoslavia was the last of the Communist nations with which the Vatican had diplomatic relations.

Vatican officials reserved comment pending the receipt of further information.

The rupture capped six years of dispute in which the strong-featured, spare-framed Archbishop Stepinac has been the central figure. Convicted by a Tito court of collaborating in World War II with the Germans, Italians and domestic foes of Tito, he was freed conditionally last December after serving five years of his 16-year sentence.

Now 54, and a "former archbishop" in the view of Yugoslav officials, he is limited to the work of a parish priest in his native town of Krasic.

Pope Pius XII named him Nov. 29 among 24 prelates who will be elevated Jan. 12 to the College of Cardinals. But whether he will ever receive the red hat of a prince of the Roman Catholic Church is in question.

He told a reporter recently he has no plans to go to Rome for the consistory next month, adding, "If I did leave, I probably would not be permitted to return."

Tito himself has blasted the nomination as "a hostile act."

Snow Forecast Again For State Vacation Start

Students planning to go home for vacation at the end of the week are hearing the same old story. Snow—after causing transportation tie-ups for the Thanksgiving holiday—appeared again in the forecast for Thursday.

But, the weatherman says, the prediction is for only light snow in the Panhandle Thursday and in the west and central Friday.

Temperatures are expected to skid Thursday, however, with highs in the 20s, as cold air from Canada continued to encroach on the Cornhusker state.

The snow is likely because of a low pressure cell over the Texas panhandle, which has brought some cloudiness to Nebraska.

8 Dead, Many Hurt As Gale Hits Britain

LONDON (INS)—At least eight persons were killed and hundreds injured Wednesday in a roaring gale that lashed the British Isles, overturned trucks and autos, ripped the roofs off houses, grounded aircraft and halted all coastal shipping.

Wind gusts of up to 130 miles per hour were reported, and at Southampton, where the storm delayed the departure of America's giant liner United States, extra ropes and steel hawsers were tied to the vessel to hold it at its dock.

Scores of Scottish villages were cut off by snow drifts and traffic was snarled in northern England and Scotland where the roads were covered with ice and snow.

Authorities at Southampton said the United States, carrying 600 passengers, would have to delay its sailing until the winds abated.

Record Yule Shopping Business At Alliance

ALLIANCE, Neb. (AP)—Chamber of Commerce Secretary Carl Smiley says it appears that a record Christmas shopping business will be done here this year.

Smiley cited reports from several retail stores showing an increase in business of "about 12 per cent" over the same period last year.

The Alliance postoffice also reports an increase. Postmaster Phil Grove estimated business was up 20 per cent over the same period in 1951.

Court Petitioned To Name Receiver For Lumber Firm

The Lancaster District Court has been asked to appoint a receiver and conduct an accounting of the books of the J. H. Yost Lumber Company in a petition filed in District Court by June Acher, who owns 100 share of common stock in the corporation.

Defendants named in the petition are the corporation and Arthur H. Yost Sr., Arthur Yost Jr., Henry O. Kattler, and Metta Y. Parker, directors of the corporation.

The lumber company has two yards in Lincoln at 6200 Platte and 600 No. 17th St.

According to the petition, the directors of the company have "diverted valuable properties of the corporation to their own use or to other legal entities in which they are financially interested."

Mrs. Acher alleges that she was refused permission by the directors to examine the books and accounts of the corporation. She also charges that Lew S. Yost, the corporation's treasurer, has been barred from performing his duty by the defendants.

The plaintiff also charges that she was told by the directors that the corporation has no by-laws and has held no election since 1940.

Her petition asks for an order calling a meeting to elect new officers and directors.

—NATO— Defense Proposal Slashed

Western Buildup Plans Clipped By Diplomats

PARIS (AP)—In the face of warnings from their military commanders, North Atlantic diplomatic and political leaders Wednesday cut to ribbons the proposed 428 million dollar Western defense building program for 1953.

They said such a sum might wreck their nations' economic stability.

Informants reported the request by NATO's supreme commander, Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway, for 428 millions to spend on building air bases and ground defense had been slashed to 210 millions. They added it might be cut still further at Thursday's closed meeting of the NATO Council.

Ridgway has repeatedly declared that his fighting force is short of airports, radar screens, communications networks and naval port facilities.

But the foreign, defense and finance ministers of the 14 NATO nations concluded, a spokesman said, that "the risk of aggression had to be balanced against the danger of internal collapse."

Briefing officer Geoffrey Parsons, head of the NATO information staff, said eight ministers spoke and several emphasized that the economic pressure of the defense program already was increasing unemployment.

They agreed on a recommendation that the member nations "make the maximum effort without endangering their economic stability."

'Each A New Personality':

Santa Never Tires Of Tots' Visits

By DON WRIGHT
Star Staff Writer

"I wouldn't care if they came a hundred at a time."

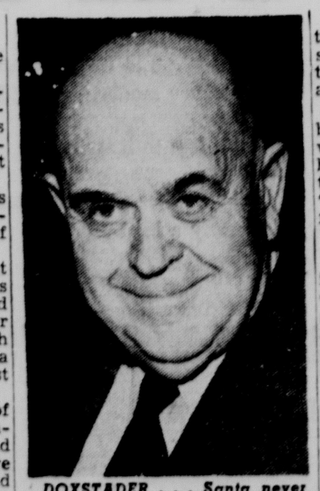

That's the reaction of a real-life Santa Claus, Fred H. Doxstader, 439 No. 10th, who this year is listening to the Christmas wishes of wide-eyed tots at a big Lincoln department store.

Fred, who is married but has no children, never gets out of patience with the hundreds of youngsters that visit him daily.

"I get a particular enjoyment out of every little one that comes to me with his secret wish," said Fred, who admits to being "better than 70." "After all, behind each of those happy little faces is a new and different personality just like grownups."

With 50 years experience of meeting the public as musical instrument repairman and band leader and three more as store "Santa," Fred continues to find amusing day-to-day events.

Not so long ago a youngster walked up to "Santa" and asked for a real gun for Christmas. "It's something that I've wanted all these years," he confided to the jolly old man.

DOXSTADER . . . Santa never loses patience with kids.

"The boy must have been all of five years," chuckled Fred.

Fred, who has lived in Lincoln for 15 years since coming here from the Black Hills, uses his own special psychology in getting the children to reveal their fondest dreams.

"The main thing is to get them talking about anything," he asserted. "Generally, if I can get their name and age and how they are, from then on its easy."

Fred makes it a policy to never bluntly refuse a youngster's wishes, especially when they give him a long Christmas list. He tactfully remarks something like, 'My, you must have been awfully good.'

Amusing Trend

There's been at least one amusing trend in requests this year. Curiously, Fred reports, more girls than boys are asking for sleds. The boys are sticking to he-man stuff like cowboy suits, guns and holsters.

Judging from the past, Fred finds the youngsters this year as well or better behaved than usual—"of course the groups of older boys cause a little trouble." And he's noticed that the children are better dressed this year.

"Last Saturday it seemed as if a thousand kids visited me," remarked Fred, "but all of those who haven't, I want to see before Christmas."

"And, oh yes," he added with a twinkle in his eye, "I want all the little boys and girls to be good and mind their parents."

PONTIAC, Mich. (INS)—An all woman jury in Pontiac Circuit Court Wednesday found four Detroit youths guilty of first degree murder for the hold-up slaying of Gasoline Station Attendant Alfred Jones.

The four youths face a mandatory life sentence. They are 17-year-old Robert Hearn, 21-year-old Basil Dupuis, and Frank O. Baker and Peter Imbimbo, both 23 years old.

Motorist Rebels; Unhooks Freight Cars At Crossing

MUNCIE, Ind. (INS)—Carson Kennedy, a 25-year-old Muncie mill worker, gave in to an impulse Wednesday and did what most motorists have wanted to do since freight trains first blocked a road crossing—He uncoupled the cars.

Kennedy told Railroad Detective C. P. Reynolds he waited 15 minutes while a freight train sat blocking the crossing. He said he got tired waiting and unhooked the last 59 cars just before the train pulled out of the station.

The engine and 10 freight cars moved away leaving behind the 59 cars and a caboose.

Reynolds filed charges of tampering with railroad property against Kennedy.

Bridges Is For Korea Atom Use

Manchuria Bombing, Navy Blockade Urged

NEW YORK (INS)—Sen. Bridges (R-NH) Wednesday urged all-out prosecution of the Korean War including use of atomic weapons, bombing of the enemy's Manchurian bases and a full naval blockade of Red China.

Bridges

The veteran GOP leader, who will wield great influence in the new Senate as Appropriations Committee chairman and who may be majority leader, made known his views in an interview.

Bridges said:

"By employing the utmost military pressure on the armed Communists in Korea, I believe we have the best chance of forcing an end to the aggression in Asia."

He said he does not believe such a policy might provoke an expanded war. He advocated the following steps:

"(1) Fuller use of our anti-Communist Allies in Asia, primarily by replacing Americans with Koreans in the combat zones, and mobilizing the Japanese, Filipinos and Chinese on Formosa; (2) use of some of the new weapons, including atomic weapons if their employment would save American lives; (3) an end to political restrictions on pursuing the enemy to his sanctuary in Manchuria and bombing him there; (4) a naval blockade of the China coast."

Bridges also covered the subjects of foreign aid, the budget, taxes and possible investigations by the new Congress.

He said he expects aid to Europe will be continued but on a curtailed basis. He said that in return for American aid, the U. S. should receive strategic materials, tax-free use of bases, removal of economic embargoes, and the like.

Vandalism Mars Christmas Trees

COLUMBUS, Neb. (AP) — The Christmas "spirit" has taken peculiar form here.

Someone stole between 40 and 50 bulbs from two Christmas trees in front of the Consumers Public Power District's general office, took the bulbs into an alley, then smashed them and scattered the pieces about.

CPPD officials said this has happened often in recent years.

Loss At G.I.

A similar report came from Grand Island where some 140 outdoor Christmas lights were taken from seven Grand Island homes. The largest single loss was 50 bulbs.

One woman caught four young boys trying to take down decorations outside her home, but they fled when she appeared. Another man heard a car drive away and went outside to find some bulbs missing.

Jet Sea Plane Is Unveiled In California

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (INS)—A startlingly new jet-powered seaplane built for the U.S. navy was unveiled at the Consolidated Vultee Aircraft Corporation Wednesday and immediately went into preflight trial runs on San Diego Bay.

The jet, the XF 2Y-1, is the world's first delta wing seaplane.

Aircraft officials said it was a high speed, fighter-type seaplane designed to expand the air defense perimeter of fleets at sea and costal installations.

The new experimental delta aircraft has no horizontal tail, but is equipped with a triangle-shaped vertical fin and rudder.

Another innovation is the hydro ski apparatus installed for better rough water landing and takeoff. It marks the first application of the hydro ski to a combat type aircraft in this country and, according to Navy officials, may well be the first such application in the world.

A few minutes after the XF 2Y-1, known as the "Sea Dart," was unveiled, E. D. Shannon, chief of experimental flight for Convair's San Diego division, stepped into the cockpit for the initial trial run across the bay.

'High Living' Criticized

WASHINGTON (INS) — Sen. Mundt (R-SD) proposed Wednesday that the Senate investigate what he called "high living" Americans holding foreign aid jobs abroad.

Mundt, who is a member of the Senate's permanent investigating committee, said he has received "recurrent reports" that some Americans connected with the Mutual Security Administration are living in Europe "as if they were millionaires."

Judge Fines Himself

GARYVILLE, La. (AP) — Game rangers found Justice of the Peace Anicet Klibert hunting rabbits with an illegal floodlight.

Emergency Flight Will Carry Turkey To Men In Africa

WASHINGTON (INS) — The Pentagon saw to it Wednesday that Army and Air Force men in North Africa will have their Christmas turkey after all.

This week the bird supply was seriously depleted when the refrigerator ship Grommet Reefer broke in two off Leghorn, Italy.

Thursday a four-engined globemaster will take off from Mobile, Ala., with an emergency cargo of 19,000 pounds of Turkey.

Big Omaha Labor Surplus Foreseen

OMAHA (AP) — The Nebraska State Employment Service Wednesday forecast the possibility of a "substantial surplus" of labor in the Omaha area after the first of the year.

The Omaha office of the NSES noted that more persons than ever have jobs here now at the peak of the Christmas season employment.

A survey of more than 400 firms employing 75 per cent of the salaried workers in the area showed drops in labor demand after Jan. 1 in food processing, retail and wholesale trade, postal workers and service business.

Manufacturing employment, even with some annual seasonal layoffs, will hold steady, the NSES said. The same is expected to be true of the transportation and utility fields.

Russell Hand, director of the Omaha office, said he didn't expect much of an unemployment problem. And by March, he added, the job supply should be back to normal.

For the Christmas season, more than 5,000 persons have been employed for part-time and temporary work.

U.S. Renews Demand For Plane Payment

WASHINGTON (INS) — The United States Wednesday pelted the Kremlin with a new note demanding compensation for an American plane forced down in Hungary by Soviet fighters last year.

The communication was similar to a message to Moscow Tuesday, in which the U.S. insisted that Russia pay for destruction of an American plane, with the presumed loss of eight crewmen, off Japan last Oct. 7.

The note dealing with the Hungarian incident spurned the Soviet snub arising from joint messages sent to Moscow and Budapest Dec. 10. The Russians returned the Dec. 10 note, asserting that it was "incorrectly addressed."

In the message delivered Wednesday to acting Soviet Foreign Minister Malik, the U.S. maintained that the Kremlin is "well aware the U.S. government has communicated separately with the Hungarian government in this matter."

Besides denying that there was any "incorrect address," the U.S. charged that Moscow had refused to take proper notice of the contents of the Dec. 10 note.

Christmas Came Too Late

COVINGTON, Ky. (AP)—Christmas didn't come early enough for John Lahrman, 10.

Suffering from a tumor, he had not been expected to live until Christmas. So a pre-holiday celebration in his behalf was arranged for Wednesday night in Booth Hospital. A tree was set up, and presents flowed in.

John died Tuesday night.

Alleged U.S. Pirate Brought To Court

TANGIER (INS)—An American accused of "piracy on the high seas" went on trial Wednesday in Tangier and a Dutch captain testified that hooded pirates armed with tommyguns boarded his ship shouting "stick 'em up."

Sidney Paley, 40, a native of Jersey City, N. J., pleaded innocent to charges that he engineered the highjacking of 26 million American cigarettes valued at $100,000 from the Dutch coastal steamer Combinatie near the Straits of Gibralter last October.

The trial in the American Consular Court was adjourned until Thursday after U. S. Government Prosecutor Neil Ruge read the charges against Paley and Johannes Van Delft, master of the Combinatie, testified that the "dirty pirates stuck me in the hold ten days."

School Bond Issue Wins At Lewiston

LEWISTON, Neb.—(Lincoln Star Special)—Voters here approved a $48,000 bond issue for the construction of a new school building to be built adjacent to the present high school.

The building will contain an auditorium-gymnasium, home economics kitchen and laboratory facilities.

One Way To Get On Roof

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Lonnie Johnson wound up on the roof of a one-story house after a traffic crash, but probably will survive.

Johnson, a San Francisco bus driver visiting here, cracked up Wednesday, police said, while traveling at high speed. His car hit a traffic island, then bounced into a house 268 feet away. The auto buried itself in the house, and Johnson was tossed onto the roof.

Mayor Admits Secret Meeting With Racketeer

NEW YORK (AP)—Democratic Mayor John V. Kenny of Jersey City purportedly lied to a New York grand jury, then broke down and admitted a secret rendezvous with a notorious waterfront racketeer.

A record of the 9-month-old grand jury testimony was read by the New York State Crime Commission Wednesday at its inquiry into waterfront racketeering in the world's largest port. Kenny has refused to appear in person at the commission's public hearings.

After he made a clean breast of his midnight meeting with Anthony Strollo, Kenny was asked in the grand jury session:

"Now, Mr. Mayor, I'm going to be very, very blunt with you. Will you tell this grand jury why you lied the last time you were before them?"

"Yes, I will," was the answer attributed to Kenny. "I have never been aassociated with anybody of a poor reputation.

"I didn't want to have anybody believe that I would be involved with anybody with a reputation of that kind and I—I am certainly sorry. I regretted it as soon as I left here.

All But One Killed In Family Of Nine

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (INS)—A tragic fire, caused by the explosion of a kerosene stove, wiped out all but one member of a family of nine persons Wednesday.

Only 12-year-old Shirley Bryant survived the fire. She is in a hospital with serious burns.

Six of the Bryant children perished outright in the flames. They were Ruth, 9; Patsy, 8; Billy, 6; Ronnie, 4; Jean, 2; and Johnny, nine months old.

The father, Hilton Bryant, 29, died in the hospital and his 31-year-old wife succumbed an hour later.

The explosion occurred when the father poured kerosene into a small stove in the three-room farm house. The blast spewed flames through the house and only the parents and the surviving child, their clothes ablaze, managed to get outside.

Ike Appoints Two To Commerce Jobs

NEW YORK (AP) — President-elect Dwight D. Eisenhower Wednesday announced the appointment of two officials to the Commerce Department in the new Republican administration.

Eisenhower said in a statement that after his inauguration on Jan. 20 he will nominate Samuel Wagner Anderson of Washington, D. C., as assistant secretary of commerce for international affairs, and Robert Blaine Murray Jr., of Harrisburg, Pa., as undersecretary for transportation.

They will serve under Sinclair Weeks, who will be secretary of commerce.

Anderson, 54, is a native of LaCrosse, Wis.

Murray, 41, served from 1942 in the Air Force as executive officer of the Special Projects Office. He is a native of Hampstead, Md.

Newsmen And Photogs End Ride For Dog

OMAHA (AP)—L. D. Dutch Miller, 58, of Council Bluffs, took a ride with his dog Wednesday morning and unintentionally became the first official passenger to cross the new GAR Memorial Bridge at Bellevue.

The bridge, another link between Iowa and Nebraska across the Missouri River, connects with Highway 275 in western Iowa.

There were no dignitaries on hand to greet Miller as his car approached from the Bellevue side. Tolltaker Reuben Ballard was waiting to collect the first 50-cent piece and newsmen were on hand to get Miller's picture.

Harold Ludwig, vice-chairman of the Bridge Commission, predicted "no fanfare" in connection with the opening. He said the formal dedication would be held in the spring. The opening of the new bridge was a year ahead of schedule.

Miller was a little surprised at all the attention he got. But he admitted that he was in the public eye some 20 years ago when he was widely known for his dare-devil flying. His trip Wednesday was "to see how it looked. Never thought anything like this would happen."

Duff Willing To See Taft As Senate Leader

WASHINGTON (INS) — Sen. Duff (R-Pa), Wednesday joined the roster of Eisenhower lieutenants who are willing to see Sen. Taft become Senate GOP leader if that will mean party peace.

Duff, one of the most outspoken Eisenhower backers in the 1952 Ike-Taft presidential battle, announced that he will "definitely be for whoever is agreed upon by a majority of the Republican senators" for the post.

Sen. Carlson (R-Kan), announced earlier that President-designate Eisenhower will not interfere in the selection of a Senate leader. Carlson said he would back Taft if his colleagues want the Ohioan in the top Senate Republican assignment.

Carlson's statement produced an overnight shift of candidate positions, making Taft the favorite over Sen. Bridges (R-N.H.) who had been built up as the harmony candidate. Some Republicans predicted privately that Bridges will quickly take himself out of the picture.

HST Asks Continued Air Expansion

WASHINGTON (INS)—President Truman Wednesday night called for continued expansion of U. S. military air strength to deter any would-be aggressor from starting a third world war.

The Chief Executive stressed that "our aim is peace" but insisted: "We cannot have peace by being weak, or by falling behind in the technical race."

Mr. Truman made his remarks at a Washington dinner launching year-long commemoration of the first heavier-than-air flight by the Wright brothers at Kitty Hawk, N. C., Dec. 17, 1903.

The President presented the Aero Club of Washington's 1952 Wright Memorial trophy to Lt. Gen. James H. Doolittle, national chairman of the committee to observe the 50th anniversary of powered flight.

Long-Range Policy

Doolittle, who led the first B-25 raid on Tokyo early in World War II, told the audience of about 1,300 aviation enthusiasts and military and industry leaders: "This country must adopt, at the earliest possible date, a long-range consistent airpower policy and a realistic military aircraft development and production program."

Mr. Truman lauded Doolittle's "many outstanding accomplishments" in the aviation field and thanked him for hearing a White House commission on airport safety set up after a series of fatal crashes in the New York area last winter.

The President noted that, "so far, this year has been decisive in aviation history" and that "our progress in civil aviation is indeed impressive."

But he emphasized that "the most startling technical advances in aviation have, as we all know, been made in the military field" and commented: "...only by such advances can we build up the power which is necessary to keep aggression and conquest from plunging the world into war."

Governor Includes Journalism School Among 'Too Many'

When Gov. Val Peterson, discussing the University of Nebraska budget, said he believed the institution had too many colleges and schools, he admitted that one to which he referred was the School of Journalism.

The school, for which $70,000 is asked for the two-year period, includes five full-time teachers, a curriculum of 18 courses and 184 students. In the 29 years of existence—it will be 30 in May—there have been 800 graduates or former students.

Director of the school Dr. William Swindler, placed Nebraska's school, which was created by the Board of Regents "in the middle" among the Big Seven concerning number of faculty members, students and courses offered. Three are larger, three smaller, he added.

"Approximately 50 graduates are publishing papers in Nebraska or surrounding states," Dr. Swindler pointed out. And a leading executive editor of every major wire service in the United States is a Nebraska graduate, said Dr. Swindler, adding that he believes this answers the question of usefulness.

The school is a part of the College of Arts and Sciences, using its facilities and faculty, pointed out Dr. Swindler. Gov. Peterson said at the budget hearing Monday that he believed the liberal arts college should come first in consideration of budget appropriations.

"AT THE CROSSROADS OF LINCOLN"

Head Man Of The Highways

We can join with Governor-elect Bob Crosby in announcing the reappointment of State Engineer Harold L. Aitken in these words:

"It would be impossible to expect Mr. Aitken has administered the highway department to everyone's satisfaction. But in an activity that is exceedingly difficult, he has come closer to commanding the confidence of the several factions quarreling over the roads than I would have expected anyone could do. My personal impression is that Mr. Aitken is utterly sincere and is determined to allocate highway funds and road developments without regard to political or pressure considerations."

There isn't anything in the quarrel over roads that couldn't be settled if there were adequate funds with which to build the roads. The lack of money to comply with requests from every section of a big state naturally does not contribute to the popularity of the individual who in the last analysis must now and then say "no." We have never discovered any way to say "no" to requests that pleases those making the requests.

If it is a matter of courtesy, kindliness and understanding in an unpleasant job, coupled with a recognized competence, then Mr. Aitken has the qualifications. We assume that the manner in which Governor-elect Crosby made the announcement of Mr. Aitken's reappointment was intended to head off repercussions from western Nebraska or from any other area which may feel it is not getting all that it needs and all it feels it is entitled to have. The fault is not Mr. Aitken's. The fault rests with those of us who hold the pursestrings, and that means all of us.

Shall We Dance?

There is a line in the Broadway show, "The King And I," which has the king saying to his gal: "Shall we dance?" It has to be seen and heard in the inimitable style in which the king delivers it, to be fully appreciated.

★

Much that we read in the news columns these days reminds us of that line. Shall we budget? Some of the members of Congress suggest that we shall, while others either are silent or answer the question by saying that a tax reduction step is the most important business at hand. To put it another way by asking the question, "Shall we reduce taxes?"—some answer in the affirmative and others either express opposition or are non-committal. This merely is to suggest that at this stage of the game, the state of the nation seems to be fluid with respect to things to come or not to come, things to be done or not to be done, steps to be taken or not to be taken.

★

There are some matters, particularly some matters of interest to the people of the Missouri Basin, which appear to be clear in outline over the next 12 months. We know, for example, that there is the specific pledge to continue support of farm commodities on the basis of 90 per cent of parity for at least another year, possibly through 1954. After that, what happens will be up to the farmer. The assumption is that he will have had time to make up his mind thoroughly and then notify the Congress and the Chief Executive of his desire. Even in the matter of a farm program, there is an understandable uncertainty in long-range terms.

★

Apparently the old saw that "When in doubt, do nothing," has impressed some of the leaders in the incoming administration. Not by way of criticism but purely as a statement of fact, they suggest that the course of wisdom is to do a lot of sitting and listening without undertaking decisions. It may work better than those who oppose this policy anticipate. In any event, there is always an opportunity for a change of mind and if the same leaders now urging the party returning to power to go slow, conclude that they should change their position, it will be easy for them to do so.

★

There is a difference between the statements made in advance of election and the actions taken after responsibility descends upon the individuals. Responsibility tends to have a sobering effect upon men, and we are glad that it does. It would be most unfortunate if a sense of responsibility reacted in any other fashion. There is the question of reducing expenditures, with the result that there is a wide gap between notions of how deeply appropriations could be cut set forth in expressions early in the fall and now.

★

In perhaps only one field is public opinion jelling with marked rapidity. Mark Childs mentioned it in his column yesterday. He said that the country over reflected each day a growing impatience with the war in Korea. If that is true, then it will be impossible for any length of time to look and listen. It will be a case of action, or in other words, a matter of doing some dancing. But all of that is in the future—some days or weeks away—and despite impatience on the part of fathers and mothers and others with relatives in Korea, the cold, sober thought may suggest that nothing be done which would precipitate a major conflict, against which the President-elect already has expressed himself following his return from Korea.

★

The speed or the rapidity of developments in this world is known to every last man, woman and child. The tempo is again a policy involving listening. There are decisions to be made, tough decisions, and it will be the spirit of the American people to be generous at least for a time with those to whom decisions fall.

All For An Old Stone

If Scotland Yard and all the bobbies in Britain have their way, nothing is going to happen to the famous Stone of Scone at this critical hour. The ancient coronation stone is expected to stay right where it is—in Westminster Abbey—secure until the ceremonies involving Elizabeth are completed this summer.

The stone, it will be recalled, attracted international attention on Christmas Day, 1950, when a trio of Scottish nationalists took it from the abbey to dramatize their demands for home rule. It took a horde of Scotland Yard agents four months to track down the missing stone in a ruined abbey in Scotland. Vigilance will be increased on Christmas this year to prevent a recurrence of the whole affair.

The area behind the high altar where the coronation chair is situated has been closed off to keep the public away from it. The stone is under the chair, where it has rested for many centuries, and will figure prominently in the coronation when Queen Elizabeth is crowned June 2. That is, if the Scots don't get it again.

The incident two years ago was funny to everyone except the British, who refused to see anything humorous in the loss of a weighty old stone. But if the stone were to disappear again, possibly to be found in an isle of the Hebrides off Scotland, it would make the episode of 1950 seem like an innocuous preview. A lot of eyes are on that stone.

Down On The Table

Naturally until a jury has passed upon the question of the guilt or innocence of Owen Lattimore, John Hopkins University professor and Far East expert, on charges that he lied to the Senate Internal Security Sub-committee, there cannot—or at least there should not—be any expression in his case.

He has been indicted on seven counts by a federal grand jury.

He is charged with perjury — the charge based upon the assertion that he did not tell the truth when, before the sub-committe last winter, he denied he had been a promoter of Communism and Communist interests.

The effect of the grand jury indictment is not to express judgment upon either the guilt or the innocence of the accused. That is not the nature of a grand jury proceeding. All that the action of the grand jury signifies is that its members believe that sufficient cause exists to place the accused upon trial. To read into that action evidence of guilt of the charge is as unfortunate as to insist upon Lattimore's innocence.

He will have a trial—a trial by jury—an opportunity to establish his innocence under established rules of evidence with the full protection every individual accused of a crime enjoys in this country.

Always A Christmas Tree

A new American industry, raising Christmas trees, gives assurance that there will always be enough Christmas trees as long as there is a Christmas. While our timber resources, the long stretches of woodland, are diminishing, the growing of Christmas trees has turned into a phenomenal business which has a once-a-year payoff.

The Industrial Forestry Association estimated this week that Christmas trees, mistletoe and other Christmas decorations from our forests bring almost 5 million dollars at wholesale in Oregon and Washington in an average year. A total of 28 million trees are grown each year especially for the Yuletide trades and the number is steadily rising.

One of the intriguing aspects of the new industry is the fact that land virtually worthless for other purposes is fine for growing Christmas trees. Since most householders prefer a bushy tree with a large number of limbs, the slow-growing tree is best, and a Christmas tree that grows slowly has a bigger market value than the fast-growing tree which grows in spindly fashion when the earth is fertile. The better Christmas trees grow no more than a foot a year, the forestry group says, and the best grow only eight inches a year.

The profit possibilities in the tree-selling industry are so great that the foresters are faced with a variation of the oldtime rustler and more modern hijacker. Some persons, sensing a chance to make a fast dollar, drive trucks into the woods, chop down a group of particularly shapely trees and make their getaway before the owner knows the trees are gone.

It is an unfortunate development in what is otherwise a thriving, healthy, growing industry.

Brownell Holds Reins In New Administration

WASHINGTON — Now that Eisenhower is back, more can be written about his Korean talks. Actually the talks consisted of a series of bull sessions at which military strategy was hashed over far into the night.

Gen. James Van Fleet is a West Point classmate of Eisenhower's. Gen. Mark Clark served under him in North Africa. Gen. Omar Bradley is also a classmate. So they all sat around in the evenings, mulling over Korean problems and alternatives.

The sessions sometimes lasted until after midnight, which was one reason activity during the daytime was restricted. Eisenhower told the military chiefs when he arrived that he was completely exhausted, had had no real rest for six months, that the so-called vacation at Augusta, Ga., was a bust. That was the chief reason, incidentally, for the slow trip home by cruiser and the stop-over in Hawaii.

Some of the things that can be told about the bull sessions, without involving security, follow:

1. Van Fleet assured that U. N. forces were strong enough defensively to hold the Chinese armies no matter what force they threw against us.

HERBERT BROWNELL
. . . big political gun . . .

2. Gen. Clark offered three alternatives:

A. Continue to pound the enemy within the present confines of the war, trying to chew up enemy forces and discourage them, but not advance.

B. Go into Manchuria by air and destroy supply bases there.

C. Go into Manchuria by air and simultaneously advance to the border of Manchuria by land.

Clark warned that he could give no assurance the Chinese would not continue the war from Manchuria once we got up to the border.

Eisenhower made no definite commitment on what course to follow.

NOTE — Gen. Clark suggested that Eisenhower leave Korea after being there only two days. He feared a bombing attack by enemy planes. Ike said no, that he would stay three days.

EISENHOWER PIPELINE

The political orders radioed to Eisenhower headquarters in New York from the cruiser Helena in mid-Pacific were signed not by Eisenhower, but by the man who will be his attorney general—Herbert Brownell. In other words, Dewey's right-hand man will be the big political gun of the Eisenhower administration . . . Nebraskan Brownell has made a concession to Sen. Taft. He has warned new Secretary of Labor Martin Durkin that Taft will be allowed to name an assistant secretary of labor. Also he has indicated that Durkin won't have much to say about his other assistant secretaries. Eisenhower will do the appointing . . . The Navy pulled for the appointment of Harold Talbot as Secretary of the Air Force. Figured they could influence him . . . The real estate lobby is pushing Alan Brockbank, head of the National Association of Home Builders, to be Eisenhower's new head of federal housing. . . . There are still plenty of hotel accommodations available for people who want to see the inauguration. If you want a room, contact the Republican National Committee's housing committee, 1420 Pennsylvania Ave.

GOOD NEIGHBOR

Oswaldo Aranha, ex-foreign minister of Brazil and this country's foremost friend south of the border, was talking to Speaker-to-be Joe Martin of Massachusetts when Harold Stassen, Mutual Security Head-to-be, walked in.

Aranha, who has a great sense of humor, poked some good-natured fun at Stassen regarding the fact that the United States has been neglecting its good neighbors, concentrating on Europe.

"Yes, but we have the Point 4 program," remarked Stassen, who will probably take over the Point 4 program of aid to backward nations.

"Yes, we have Point 4," shot back Aranha, "but I am waiting for Point 5. After you apply Point 4 to us we will be so bad off you will have to use the Marshall Plan to keep us alive, as you have Europe."

NOTE—Dr. Aranha was, of course, partly joking. The Point 4 program sends U. S. technicians and experts to increase production, teach sanitation, health, new agriculture methods, etc. The Marshall Plan sent supplies and money.

WASHINGTON PIPELINE

Truman's remarks about Eisenhower and MacArthur may patch up an ancient rivalry, bring the two men together as nothing else could, not even Herbert Hoover. . . . The jet plane smoke trails sighted over Greenland by the Air Force last week showed that the supposed Russian plane was going away from the U. S.—not toward it. In other words, if it was a Soviet jet, it had been reconnoitering over the northern hemisphere and was on its way back . . . Gen. Lucius Clay, top inside adviser to Eisenhower, has his fingers crossed about new Secretary of State John Foster Dulles. . . . Richard Arens, the man who drafted the McCarran Immigration Act, is now pulling wires to become immigration commissioner under Eisenhower. Arens was close to Sen. Revercomb of West Virginia, who was boycotted by Tom Dewey because of his immigration views, and now is close to McCarran. If he gets the job it will raise a furor . . . Indiana's Sen. Jenner is pulling wires for Arens' appointment, also wants to take over the immigration subcommittee. Eisenhower leaders, however, much prefer able humanitarian Sen. Bob Hendrickson of New Jersey in the key spot. . . . Mrs. Truman can't afford to keep her personal secretary, Reathel Odum, after she leaves the White House, so has been telephoning friends trying to find her a job. Stu Symington, new senator from Missouri, whom Truman tried to defeat in the primaries, has now promised to hire her.

NAVY WRATH

The Navy was so upset over a magazine article debunking "Operation Mainbrace," the recent naval maneuvers of NATO nations in the Baltic, that Assistant Secretary of the Navy John Floberg personally telephoned five big airplane manufacturers asking them to withdraw their financial support from the publisher.

The article was printed in "Air Force," the magazine published by the Air Force Association, a private organization supported largely by air-minded private corporations.

Floberg bluntly intimated that Navy contracts with the five companies might be canceled unless they pulled out of the Air Force Association.

SANTA CLAUS

Our friend, Louise, is bringing up her children to face the realities of life. They have never believed in Santa Claus.

Our daughter is 11 and our son is 14, and today they believe in Santa Claus as firmly as ever they believed at 3 and 6. Their belief has changed since the toddling years; they know how narrow is the throat of a fireplace and how steep the bills on January 1, but the change has been a growth, and not a loss.

Louise may be right and we may be wrong, and if we are wrong our children will pay for our mistake in the future. She has a lot of support. Just the same, I think Louise is nuts.

The reason I think so is that I, too, believe in Santa Claus.

☆ ☆ ☆

There are two ways to believe in Santa Claus—radically and conservatively. In that respect, I am radical.

The children are conservatives. Theirs is the belief that Santa Claus is the symbol of a universal spirit, for which there is no other name. They do not consider him, as they used to do, as one who brings gifts, but instead they look upon him as one who inspires others to give.

To our children, Santa Claus is generosity and good will; he is the earthly errand boy for a greater One upon whose birthday he comes.

This is the conservative belief. We radicals accept it, and make it a part of our faith in Santa Claus, but it is not enough. It is a half-way sort of belief, a rationalization—a belief sufficient for the teens, but not for the wiser, later years.

When we believe in Santa Claus, we go whole hog.

☆ ☆ ☆

None of this ethereal spirit talk for us! Santa Claus is a man. He is inspired and possessed of blessed magic—but nevertheless a man. How else did we get the model for him, that is followed by thousands throughout the world when they dress in whiskers and red suits each year? How else do we know so well his every feature and mood? You don't diagram an airplane out of a pipe dream!

Do you seriously think that one man's name could become so famous in this modern, sophisticated world of ours if there were no man behind the name? So you've never seen him! Well, have you seen Winston Churchill? He is as unbelievable as Santa Claus. Or have you ever seen, with your own eyes, that the sun is any bigger around than a dinner plate?

Anybody who could make our daughter wash the dishes every night for a week without being asked has got to exist.

There is a Santa Claus.

Once Upon A Christmas Eve

Or The Story Of Little Eski . . .

By William Ritt

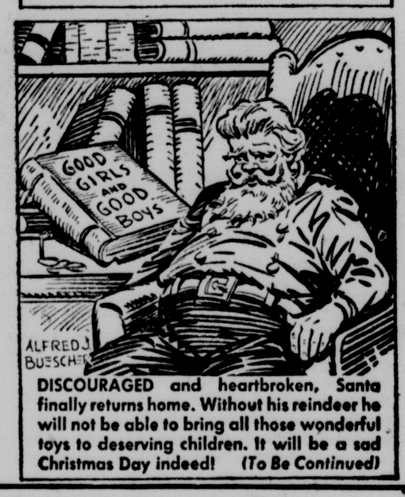

ALL IS JOY in the North Pole workshop of Santa Claus -- every toy for every good girl and good boy throughout the world is finished and ready to be distributed Christmas Eve. Happy Santa thanks his Boss Helper.

THEN SANTA, brimming with good cheer, goes out to the Reindeer Corral to feed his eight trusty steeds before they start the Big Trip. But -- what's this? -- the reindeer are not there! They have disappeared completely!

SANTA looks and looks and looks but cannot find hide or horn of any of them. He follows their tracks in the snow. They lead straight to the shore of the Great Icy Sea. The reindeer have vanished but--why? how? where?

DISCOURAGED and heartbroken, Santa finally returns home. Without his reindeer he will not be able to bring all those wonderful toys to deserving children. It will be a sad Christmas Day indeed! (To Be Continued)

The People Speak

'Terrible Terry'

Lincoln, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: Sen. Terry Carpenter of Scottsbluff is quoted in The Lincoln Star for his statement in reference to Ruth Raymond, editor of The Daily Nebraskan: "It is ridiculous that the American Legion be criticized by a naive school girl."

Let us look at the record. Miss Ruth Raymond of Scottsbluff is a senior in the University College of Arts and Sciences. Most of her work has been taken in journalism, social sciences and philosophy. Her scholastic record is excellent. She took exception to the statement of a committeeman of the American Legion attacking a book and a University professor on the evidence of an anonymous telephone call. On this basis, who is it that looks naive?

Sen. Carpenter leaps right into the middle of the ring, swinging haymakers not only at his fellow townsman, Miss Raymond, but also in an obvious effort to justify his own pet name, "Terrible Terry," he leads a lusty wallop at the great chancellor of our University of Nebraska, Sen. Carpenter evidently has decided on the role he wishes to play during the coming session of the legislature, and seems to have picked out the very center of the ring and right in the middle of the spotlight.

BEULAH CRAIN

Lincoln, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: Well, I see that Senator-elect Terry Carpenter has put himself into the subversive business—and a profitable one it seems to be these days. The pattern of action becomes clear when one realizes that the University of Nebraska's budget comes up for approval in a few months, and never before has the University called upon the people of Nebraska for greater financial support. But now Terry appoints himself watchdog extraordinary. He apparently sees himself as a poor man's Pat McCarran, intimidating witnesses down at the capitol and dispensing lettres de cachet right and left. Carpenter has already made a name for himself, but he has higher ambitions.

Not only does the man want investigations and more investigations, but he wants no discussion, no opposition. He calls a Nebraska University student naive and claims she has no right to criticize the Legion. This certainly is a splendid attitude to take toward the youth of the state, the youth that Mr. Carpenter is so concerned about down at the University. Does he think that only citizens over the age of 60 are capable of understanding Communism? Should only men who wear blue shirts be permitted to read books and judge their contents?

Carpenter may not be ashamed of himself, but there ought to be many good Nebraskans who are ashamed for him.

HAL GILDERSLEEVE

Lincoln, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: Mr. Carpenter (who has not had his picture in the paper for some time) seems to be on the trail of something big. He thinks it is a mouse; I think it is political cheese. "Dr. Gus"—otherwise known as Chancellor Gustavson—has been accused of being a liberal. What a shame! And all the time I thought he was a nice person.

It is a wonderful experience to read The Lincoln Star, but I feel that Mr. Carpenter's picture appearing on the front page should be printed on the back page with the comics, so ridiculous and funny were his statements.

Clearing A Point

Lincoln, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: I noticed a news item in the Sunday paper stating that I had written the City Council to the effect that the Board of Education was withdrawing its protest over the zoning of the business area on Adams street between 59th and 60th. I don't know who gave the reporter the information but the following is a copy of the letter which was sent to Mayor Anderson regarding the council's action on this matter:

"The Board of Education at its regular meeting Tuesday morning, Dec. 9, expressed deep concern over the fact that the City Council had seen fit to permit the creation of a business district between 59th and 60th on Adams street, contrary to the accepted recommendation and policies of both the Planning Commission and the Board of Education.

"The Board of Education rescinded its previous policy covering this matter in order that it might adopt one in harmony with that of the City Planning Commission, and thought that such a policy would help the City Council in the determination of future business areas located close to school sites."

Perhaps the letter is not clear, but the action taken by the council did run contrary to the recommendation of the Board of Education, and I believe that Paul Watt will substantiate the fact that it was also contrary to the recommendation of the Planning Commission.

We don't want to precipitate any difficulty between the City Council and the Board of Education, and we realize that the decision was entirely up to the council, but I do want to point out that the news item was an incorrect interpretation of my letter to Mayor Anderson.

Greetings From Vets

Lincoln, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: During the past year you and members of your organization have given unselfishly of your time and effort in serving the veterans at this hospital. Our patients are appreciative of the many things done to make their hospitalization more pleasant and livable. The co-operation of The Lincoln Star in our hospital program has helped immeasurably in making the typical Christmas "good will toward men" atmosphere a year-around reality for the many veteran patients treated at the hospital during 1952. We, the patients and personnel, extend a warm and friendly "thank you" and we all join in wishing The Star staff a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

2 Nebraskans Die In Car-Truck Crashes

Bassett And Omaha Men Are Victims

(From Press Dispatches)

Two Nebraskans were killed in auto-truck crashes on state highways Wednesday.

They were Wilber King, 53, of Bassett, who was killed in a truck-car crash about a mile west of Newport, and Dick R. Warren, 35, of Omaha, who was fatally injured when his car collided with a truck west of Gretna.

According to the State Safety Patrol, King was riding in a truck driven by Clint Davis, 34, of Bassett, when it collided with a passenger car driven by Albert Gale of Bassett. Both King and Davis were thrown from the truck but Davis escaped serious injuries. Gale was unhurt.

Patrolman R. R. Shorney of Ainsworth said the accident occured as Gale drove onto the highway from a county road.

The patrol said Warren's car collided with the truck on the western outskirts of Gretna. He received head and internal injuries and died after being taken to an Omaha hospital.

The two fatalities Wednesday became the 310th and 311th highway victims in Nebraska so far this year. The figure at this time last year stood at 324.

Ideas Plentiful On Commission Claims Sandahl

NORTH PLATTE, Neb.—Judging from pre-election comments from legislators-elect, the coming session of the Nebraska Legislature "may have about as many ideas on how to set up a state highway commission as there are state senators," Cliff Sandahl, chairman of the Nebraska Editors Highway Conference, said.

Establishment of a highway commission "is a cinch" to be an early issue at the session, he said.

Sandahl noted that various organizations over the state "are on record in favor of a commission—primarily on a part-time advisory, policy-making basis, at the same time leaving engineering details to the engineers.

"These organizations include member groups of the Nebraska Highway Users Conference, such as farm, trucking and petroleum interests, plus the All Nebraska Association of Road and Highway Associations (An-Ar-Ha) and Better Nebraska Association (BNA)."

Spokesmen for highway users have indicated they stand pat on a part-time commission concerned with policy matters only, Sandahl said. An-Ar-Ha officials flatly favor a commission on the grounds increased revenue cannot be obtained unless a commission is created.

Funeral services will be held Friday morning.

'52 Corn Output Remains Sixth Largest

Oats Yield Is Revised Downward

By The Associated Press

The Department of Agriculture, in its final crop report of the year, held fast Wednesday to its estimate of a 261,960,000 bushels 1952 corn crop in Nebraska.

The estimate is the same as the one a month ago.

The production would come from a 37 bushel per acre yield from 7,080,000 acres planted to corn and would rate as the sixth largest of record in the state. The 37 bushel per acre yield is a new high for this century.

Last year, the Department said, acreage in corn also was 7,080,000, but the 26.5 bushel per acre yield brought a total of only 187,620,000.

On winter wheat, the new estimate puts production as 97,695,000 bushels, an all-time high for the state. This represents only minor adjustment of the last previous estimate.

The whopping wheat output comes from a 22.5 bushel per acre yield from 4,342,000 acres. Last year, the state produced 14.5 bushels per acre from 3,947,000 or a total of 57,323,000 bushels.

The new estimate on oats is a downward revision of a half million bushels from the last previous estimate. The 1952 crop was rated as 19 bushels per acre from 2,545,000 acres or a total of 46,626,000 bushels. Last year the 2,172,000 harvested acres produced 28 bushels per acre or 60,816,000 bushels.

Rye Estimate Clipped

An adjustment in the estimate of acreage planted to rye clipped the estimate on the crop slightly.

Rye output was figured at 1,700,000 bushels or 10 per acre from 170,000 acres. The last previous estimate had the same yield per acre but placed acreage at 172,000.

Last year Nebraska produced 8.5 bushels of rye per acre from 202,000 acres for a total of 1,717,000.

Raised in the new report was the estimate on sugar beets, figured now at 15.5 bushels per acre from 58,000 acres for a total of 899,000 bushels. A month ago the estimate was for 870,000 bushels or 15 per acre.

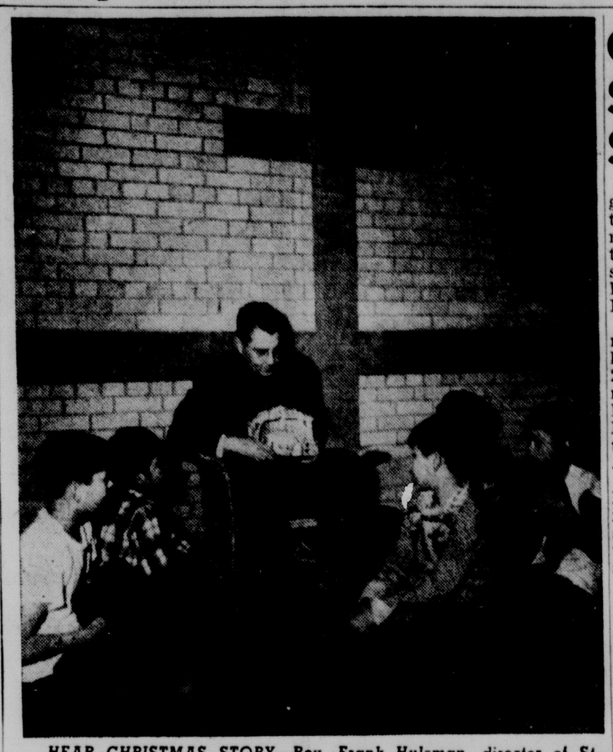

Last year Nebraska produced 12.4 bushels of sugar beets per acre from 55,000 acres or 683,000 bushels.

Hiked also was the estimate on dry edible beans, grown chiefly in Nebraska's North Platte valley. The current figure is 1,120,000 bags of 100 pounds each or 2,000 pounds per acre from 56,000 acres. Last month a crop of 1,064,000 pounds was foreseen, based on an estimate of 1,900 pounds per acre.

Last year Nebraska produced 838,000 bags of beans, or 1,250 pounds per acre from 67,000.

Services Thursday For J. John Jurgens, 71

FAIRBURY, Neb. — (Lincoln Star Special) —Funeral services will be held Thursday for J. John Jurgens, 71. He died in a Fairbury hospital.

HEAR CHRISTMAS STORY—Rev. Frank Hulsman, director of St. Augustine's Indian Children's Village at Winnebago, Neb., and some of his boys sit beneath a cross of bricks in the wall of one of the two dormitories dedicated recently at the home. Cemetery Case Sent To Iowa Supreme Court

SIOUX CITY, Ia. (AP)—With legal barriers to its appeal cleared, the case of the refusal by Memorial Park Cemetery of Sioux City to bury a Winnebago, Neb., Indian sergeant—one of 1951's most publicized stories—was headed for the Iowa Supreme Court Wednesday.

When Mrs. Evelyn Rice of Winnebago was refused burial for her husband, Sgt. John R. Rice, Aug. 27, 1951, the story quickly grew in nation-wide interest and was followed shortly by an offer from President Truman for burial for the 37-year-old Korea victim in Arlington Cemetery.

The soldier's widow filed suit in District Court here asking $60,000 in damages from the cemetery association for humiliation, nervousness and public ridicule resulting from the burial incident.

After the case had been removed to Federal Court, rejected there and returned to District Court, Judge Ralph W. Crary ruled that "discrimination against minorities by private corporations is not against the law except in cases involving restaurants, hotels and places of amusement."

Future Of Nebraska Dairying Termed Brightest In History

Members of the Nebraska Guernsey Breeders Association were told that the outlook for dairying in this state and the nation has never been brighter.

The state dairymen were told by Robert Stewart of Peterboro, N. H., assistant secretary of the American Guernsey Breeders Association, that the bright future is indicated by increased consumption of fluid milk and the boost in consumption per person.

At the same meeting, three members were elected to the state board of directors. They are: Delbert Egger of Roca; Paul Riggert of Lincoln and Arnold Brember of Palmyra. New officers of the association will be elected from the board at a meeting Jan. 3.

In his speech, Stewart also criticized the recent trend toward family purchase of skim milk. He said that at the last annual meeting of the American Medical Association doctors agreed that the consumption of whole milk is still important even for a weight reduction diet. The doctors said, he related, that it is important to cut down on the number of calories in the weight reducing diet, but not to eliminate the fat provided by milk.

Dr. Philip L. Kelly, chairman of the University of Nebraska dairy department, told the Guernsey dairymen of recent studies conducted on cattle bloat. He said a recent study in California showed that the greatest incidence of bloat to cows came from eating alfalfa or ladino which was eight to 14 inches high, where there are no weeds or dry matter available in the field.

Highway 30 Publicity Meet Held In Sidney

SIDNEY, Neb. (AP)—The U. S. Highway 30 Association held a meeting here to discuss ways and means of attracting more favorable publicity for No. 30, described by President Le Roy Snyder of Blair as the most convenient coast-to-coast highway.

Snyder said it is used heavily by truckers because it has a minimum of grades. He said it was the "first cross-country highway."

Opposition Is Light At Niobrara Basin Hearing

AINSWORTH, Neb. (AP)—A hearing Wednesday on the proposed development plan for the Niobrara Basin brought out a crowd of 312 and little opposition.

Some 30 persons spoke and in addition, a resolution favoring the Bureau of Reclamation plan for the basin and signed by 1,121 residents of Brown, Rock and Keya Paha Counties was presented.

Fred Coleman, an Ainsworth farmer, presented a petition signed by 26 large land owners of this area who oppose the development.

'Too Expensive'

Coleman explained that the 26 all have large areas of irrigable land and that they felt it would be too expensive to bring all of it under irrigation. However, he pointed out all the irrigable land, whether irrigated or not, would be taxed to help pay for the development.

Lynn Heth, Valentine attorney representing rancher interests south of Valentine near Merritt Reservoir on Snake River, said the men he represented had no quarrel with the irrigation plans but didn't want a ditch across their land.

He also said it would be unlawful for the Ainsworth area to take water from the Snake River Watershed because it would constitute diversion from one watershed to another.

John Forsythe, Niobrara, a director of the Niobrara Basin Development Association, declared that the contention of the ranchers that the water was being diverted probably would not hold up in an attorney general's test.

The Bureau of Reclamation has contended the water is all within the Niobrara watershed.

The ranchers in the Valentine area are organized as the Sand Hills Conservation Association and that group is expected to present stiffer opposition Thursday at a hearing at Valentine.

A similar hearing was held Tuesday at O'Neill and another will be held Friday at Gordon.

Great Challenge Facing Churches Says Dr. Morse

OMAHA (AP)—There are more people living outside the influence of the church today than ever before in our country's history, Dr. Hermann N. Morse declared Wednesday.

This, then, is the biggest challenge facing American churches, said Dr. Morse, moderator of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America.

Dr. Morse said the new revised edition of the Bible may help church leaders meet the challenge, adding: "I am enthusiastic about the new Bible and astounded at the great publicity it has received."

Emphasizing the importance of laity in the church, he compared the church to the United Nations—both have organizational structures which are good, but the success of both depends on the moral strength behind them.

"If we could better use the leadership of the church as an influence on society, then we could inject a moral sense into our cultural stream," he said.

Dr. Morse was in Omaha to address the Council of Presbyterian Men, Omaha Presbytery.

Dr. Morse will be in Lincoln Friday and will speak at a meeting open to the public that night at Westminster Presbyterian Church.

Citizenry Called Best Resource Of Nebraska Towns

HUMBOLDT, Neb. (INS)—Dr. Walter K. Beggs, of the University of Nebraska, believes Nebraska communities should utilize their greatest resource—their citizenry—to the utmost advantage.

Addressing a Chamber of Commerce banquet at Humboldt, Dr. Beggs said the state can utilize the high intellectual level of its residents to develop community projects which can bring nationwide and even worldwide recognition.

Sen. Wiley Hopes U.N. Meeting Will Be Held In Moscow

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—Sen. Alexander Wiley (R-Wis) said Wednesday he wished the U. N. General Assembly could hold a meeting in Moscow.

He said it would be a good idea for the Assembly to "put on a performance" for the benefit of the Russian people.

Then, he told the Assembly's 60-nation Special Committee, they could see for themselves how their representatives act and hear what other countries have to say.

Lincolnite Set For 'Operation Snowfall' After 'Cold' Training

"Operation Snowfall," winter's rugged testing grounds for the Army's snowbound troops, will include Lincolnite Richard A. Delaney, who, as a ski-trained corporal, is geared for the worst.

Cpl. Delaney, son of Sgt. A. L. Delaney of the Lincoln Police Force, has just completed a month-long tour of duty at Camp Hale, Colo., preparing for the winter maneuvers, which will involve close to 100,000 men.

A native of Lincoln, Cpl. Delaney was one of 500 men picked from the Ft. Bragg, N. C., military encampment to take the specialized winter training course in Colorado. He will use this training to instruct other personnel at the winter maneuvers in New York, where they're being held.

Part of this training which cost an estimated $1,500, included "bunking out" in 42 degrees below zero weather. Wearing a high altitude "deep freeze" tan, Cpl. Delaney said in Lincoln, where the weather was a bit crisp, that in sub-zero weather, he was instructed to "keep comfortably cool."

"You don't want to sweat up," the rugged looking corporal advises. "So if you didn't take off clothes when you start to sweat, you'd freeze on the spot."

Cpl. Delaney, who will leave Lincoln Dec. 24, says skiing "is one of the biggest thrills you'll get in your life."

Cpl. Delaney is attached with the 782nd Ordnance unit of the 82nd Airborne Division. He's a graduate of the 1948 Class at Lincoln High School and took his first army training at Ft. Blitz, Tex., before being transferred to Ft. Bragg.

He expects to be released from the army in about four months, at which time he plans to enter the University of Nebraska for a physical education training course.

Sawyer Criticizes American Agencies In Europe

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Commerce Sawyer, back from a 10-country study in Europe, Wednesday criticized American agencies abroad for "confusion and wasted effort . . . too many people doing too many things in Western Europe."

Sawyer

The time has come, Sawyer said in a report to President Truman, to take the emphasis off foreign economic aid and place it on trade, within the framework of long-term economic thinking. He said Europeans agree.

Sawyer reported there has been tremendous recovery in countries aided by the United States, and Europe can go on to prosperity if it keeps faith in itself. He said he and his mission found European conditions better than they had expected.

Encouragement Only

The United States must avoid dictating or even guiding European policies, the secretary wrote, but should stand by "to give the encouragement which comes from having an understanding and helpful friend at hand."

He added emphatically that nothing the United States does to help Europe, such as cutting tariffs, should undermine the American economy because "a prosperous America is necessary not only for us but for the rest of the free world . . ."

On the subject of U. S. establishments abroad, Sawyer stated:

"There was almost unanimous opinion that we have too many people and too many agencies in Western Europe."

"While we were most favorably impressed with the high quality of many representatives of the U.S. abroad, it would appear that their efficiency and morale are impaired by the fact that there are too many people doing too many things.

Solution

"Confusion and waste are the result.

"The solution . . . is the abolishment of emergency agencies whose task is either completed or can be absorbed by the regular departments. We still have MSA (Mutual Security Agency) missions in some countries to which we are not now giving and for some time have not given economic aid."

Europe's salvation, he said, lies with Europe, not with the United States. He added that he found awareness of this in Europe.

Mobilization Director Henry H. Fowler, who accompanied Sawyer on his trip, signed the report with him.

The mission visited Great Britain, France, Western Germany, Italy, Greece, Turkey, Belgium, Switzerland, The Netherlands and Spain between Oct. 31 and Dec. 8.

Chancellor Bracy Is Hiram Club Speaker

Nebraska Wesleyan Chancellor Carl C. Bracy urged Hiram Club members Wednesday to consider the 1952 Christmas season in view of five major thoughts.

"Light in the midst of darkness, truth in the midst of ignorance, hope in the midst of despair, simplicity in the midst of complexity and love in a world of hate—these epitomize the meaning of the birth of Christ in 1952," said the chancellor.

Beatrice Firm Is Sued For $150,000 Damages

A New York City man is suing a Beatrice manufacturing firm for $150,000 accident damages, according to a petition filed in Federal Court.

Arthur Crothers, an employee of a Brooklyn, N. Y., firm, charges that while he was unloading beer barrels manufactured by the Beatrice Steel Tank and Manufacturing Company, the barrels fell on him causing injuries.

The petition alleges that the Beatrice firm sent the barrels in a sealed freight car and that the car was not unsealed until it reached New York on April 12, 1951.

The barrels were improperly stacked and were not equipped with safety devices to hold them in place, Crothers charges.

Plans To Improve A Street As Arterial Are Completed

Plans have now been completed by the city for the improvement of A Street as a major east-west arterial.

Purchase has been authorized of a $900 strip of ground at the southwest corner of 17th and A to take the jog out of that intersection. The northeast corner, now public property, will also be cut back.

All four corners of Breta Park will be cut back at 19th and 20th to make the jog at those intersections less hazardous. The work on all intersections is planned for the spring.

Court Orders $1,695 Payment On FCA Loans

Federal Judge John W. Delehant ordered Ray W. Porter, Pawnee City, to pay $1,695.13 which the government charged was due on loans made to Porter by the Farm Credit Administration.

According to the complaint, Porter borrowed $657, payable before Nov. 1, 1935, and $200, payable before Aug. 31, 1935. The amounts plus the interest to 1952 total $1,695.13.

Meeske, Jacobs Named To Farmers Union Board

NU Station For McKelvie Ranch Studied

The University of Nebraska Board of Regents is expected to decide at its next meeting whether funds will be asked to operate the By the Way Ranch of ex-Gov. Sam McKelvie in Cherry County as an experiment station.

The annual university budget now before Gov. Val Peterson and Gov.-elect Robert Crosby carries an item of $155,000 to finance possible operation of the ranch.

The ranch was offered to the university by the former governor for use as an experiment station.

However, a university official has said negotiations between the university and the ranch owner over operation of the property are still very indefinite.

The university has emphasized that nothing has yet been decided and if no arrangements satisfactory to both sides are reached the item will be withdrawn from the budget before any appropriations are made for the university.

Early plans had called for using the McKelvie ranch as an experiment station for cattle, grass studies and range management studies.

Gen. Van Fleet Asks Chance To 'Clobber' Reds

TOKYO (Thursday) (INS)—General James A. Van Fleet will stay in the Army beyond his retirement date next month only if President-elect Eisenhower gives him the chance to "clobber" the Communists in Korea.

Authoritative sources in Tokyo made this revelation to International News Service Wednesday.

Van Fleet

These sources said that if Eisenhower, after weighing U. S. commitments in Europe against the military problem in Korea, decides to permit the Korean stalemate to continue Van Fleet will accept retirement as scheduled, on Jan 24.

But, the sources said, if there is to be a fight against the Communists in Korea Van Fleet wants to lead it.

Van Fleet has made no bones about the fact that he wants a clear military victory over the Communists in Korea.

The Old Man

Sources close to Van Fleet said the General sat Eisenhower down in his headquarters in Seoul during the President-elect's recent Korean visit and in the presence of Generals Omar Bradley and Mark W. Clark "told the old man a thing or two."

According to these informants Van Fleet told Eisenhower the Eighth Army was prepared to mount a spring offensive to the narrow "waist" of Korea along the Pyongyang-Wonsan line but that to go further, as Gen. Douglas McArthur did, would require more help.

The Eighth Army commander was reported to have told Eisenhower he wanted to drive the Communists out of their atom-proof bunkers on the front so that Allied air power and mobile infantry could catch them in the open and annihilate them.

That plan, Van Fleet reportedly told Eisenhower, would force the Reds to quit.

Eisenhower reportedly told his old friend and comrade-in-arms that before he could answer he had to weigh the entire global picture and decide whether the United States could lead an offensive in Korea.

Henry Sentenced To One To Two Year Term

Darwin L. Henry, 18, 5226 Bancroft, was sentenced by District Judge John L. Polk to serve not less than one and not more than two years in the state reformatory.

Henry pleaded guilty to a charge of breaking and entering the Sullivan Lumber Company, 4711 Prescott, on Dec. 7.

The Lincoln youth was recently released from a Federal probation on the charge of transporting a stolen car across a state line.

Omaha Construction

The Highway Department reported Wednesday that Peter Kiewit Sons' Co. of Omaha was apparent low bidder on the 1.7 mile center section of the new northwest radial in Omaha. The bid was $1,238,326.84. The city is to put up $621,839.80 and the remainder will come from federal aid funds.

PMA Sets Final Date For Filing ACP Reports

Lancaster County Production and Marketing Administration chairman Richard Lefferdink announced Wednesday that the final date for filing agriculture conservation program (APC) reports on practices signed up under the ACP program for 1952 is Dec. 31.

He urged all Lancaster farmers to turn in bills of sale or evidence showing the amount of work carried out on their farms not later than Dec. 31.

Lefferdink also stated that the closing date for carrying out 1952 federal land restoration practices approved by the county committee is Dec. 31.

He said the office will be closed Dec. 25 and 26.

Lars Johnson Estate Appraised At $32,280

The estate of Lars P. Johnson, who died Dec. 13, 1951, was appraised at a total of $32,280.86, according to a report filed in County Court by appraiser Thomas R. Pansing.

The estate includes one-half of a quarter section of Lancaster County land valued at $10,000 with the remainder in personal property, U. S. Savings Bonds, and bank accounts.

Mrs. Hulda F. Johnson, the widow, is the sole beneficiary.

Appointments Made

State Auditor Ray Johnson Wednesday named E. C. Bute as deputy state auditor and appointed J. Cecil Way, state accountant; P. Merle Humphries, assistant state accountant, and L. T. Fleetwood, bond examiner. All have been on Johnson's staff for some time.

THE STAR GOES CALLING:

Down Greek Letter Row On N. U. Campus

By ANN MOCKETT

The Christmas spirit has once again descended on fraternity and sorority row on the University of Nebraska campus as is evidenced by a sudden hustle to get trees decorated, to get party plans underway and last, but not least, to find just the right Santa Claus for each party.

Final exams and term papers, it seems, had been temporarily forgotten at one house we visited, pictured in the upper left hand corner, while children of the alumnae group are entertained. Santa's helper, the one with the white beard, may be recognized as Wayne "Bear" Handshy, a former tackle on the University of Nebraska football team.

In the middle picture at the top of the page, we find Miss Carolyn Cameron of Sioux Falls, S. D., Miss Damaris Riddell, Scottsbluff, Miss Virginia Franks of Mitchell and Miss Mary Margaret Loomis of Lincoln, wrapping packages purchased at the last minute. They also seem to be enjoying the clever decorations in Miss Loomis and Miss Cameron's bedroom, which, by the way, won the prize for the best decorations, in their particular sorority house.

Although no fraternity men are visible, they took a very active part with one of the sororities on campus in a Christmas party for twenty invited small fry. Following the distribution of gifts, fruit and candy by Santa Claus, a group of pledges presented a skit. Included in the picture, in the upper right hand corner, are Miss Ann Lindly of Omaha portraying Santa Claus, Miss Cynthia Holyoke, of Pasadena, Cal., as a jack-in-the-box, Miss Rachel Foote of Hostings, Miss Ingrid Swerre of Omaha and Miss Cynthia Noble, also of Omaha who took the part of a bunny.

At another house on campus, we found a chapter Christmas party in progress. Following the donation of a gift from every girl in the chapter for some needy child, the girls exchanged gifts, each of which had a clever bit of poetry attached. Pictured in the photograph, on the lower left, is Miss Sally Jo Speicher of Omaha, opening her gift. Miss Allison Faulkner of Lincoln is reading her small bit of poetry while Miss Bobbie Russell, left, and Miss Barbara Bell, both of Lincoln, sit close by and listen attentively.

The traditional Christmas tree is a must in every house on campus, and with the help of everyone, seems to take little effort to assemble. Putting the finishing touches on their tree, shown at the lower right, are, from left to right, Miss Lucy Hilger, Hamburg, Ia., Miss Grace Burkhardt of Norfolk, Miss Jeanie Gomel, Fairfax, Mo., and Miss Claudette Helm of Lincoln.

New Patriarchs Prexy

MRS. PHILIP S. HARDY

In spite of the fact that the members of the Patriarchs were all done up in their best bib and tucker for the group's very festive Christmas party at the Lincoln Country club Wednesday evening, there was time out for election of officers—

The new president is Mrs. Philip S. Hardy who succeeds Mrs. Harold P. Stebbins. Another newly named member of the Patriarchs official staff is Mrs. James P. Edee (Sheila Grainger), but the secretary-treasurer, J. Taylor Greer, was not permitted to relinquish his office, and so must serve through 1953.

Lakeview Program

All the pupils of Lakeview school will participate in the school's annual Christmas program which will be presented at 8 o'clock, Thursday evening, in the school auditorium.

WAF Is Married To Lincoln Man

At an 8 o'clock ceremony solemnized Tuesday evening, November 11, at St. Mark's Lutheran church, Charlotte, N. C., Miss Flora Graham, A-3/c WAF, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Graham of Birmingham, Ala., became the bride of Carl G. Tisthammer, jr., A-1/c USAF, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Tisthammer of Lincoln. In the presence of a small group of friends, the Rev. Walter B. Freed read the lines of the service.

Given in marriage by Sgt. Francis E. Abbey, the bride wore for her wedding a pastel blue wool suit with matching accessories. Her shoulder corsage was of orchids.

Sgt. James R. Allen served as best man.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of Sgt. and Mrs. Jim Roth in Charlotte, after which the couple left for a wedding trip to the North Carolina mountains.

The bride has been assigned to Selfridge field, Mich., where she will be joined by Mr. Tisthammer following his discarge from the airforce this month. The bridegroom has attended Augustana college, Sioux Falls, S. D. The couple will make their home in Lincoln after the bride receives her discharge from the air force.

Fun To Say "Hello"

AREN'T THE Christmas cards clever this season? We think so, too, and it's so much fun to get them—It's more fun, however, to say "hello" to the guests who are arriving daily to spend the holidays here—

But before we start on our long guest list we want to go back to several days ago when we mentioned that Mrs. Grace Welch of Champaign, Ill., would be arriving on Saturday, December 20, to spend the holidays with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Watt—Mrs. Welch still is arriving on Saturday, but in addition to her son-in-law and daughter she also will be greeting a brand new grandson, David Calvert, who arrived at Lincoln General hospital on Tuesday evening, December 16. Mrs. Watt is the former Grace Welch—Kappa Kappa Gamma at the University of Illinois, where Mr. Watt is a member of Phi Delta Theta. Young David's paternal grandmother is Mrs. Anna C. Watt of St. Louis.

* * *

ANOTHER BIT of pre-guest list news has to do with Mr. and Mrs. Linus Southwick who have arrived from Santa Maria, Cal., to reside in Lincoln, and who are busier than the proverbial bees getting settled in their home at 3100 Van Dorn street.

Mr. and Mrs. Southwick, who at the moment are commuting between Friend and Lincoln, probably will be well established in their new home by the week-end—in time for the party Sunday evening for which Mr. and Mrs. Oril A. Barber, jr., Mr. and Mrs. James Crabill and Mr. and Mrs. Flavel Wright will be hosts and hostesses at supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Barber. A small group of guests has been invited for the supper and an informal evening.

* * *

HEAR THAT Miss Betty Bedell planes in from Santa Ana, Cal., (where she is teaching) on Saturday to spend the holidays with her mother, Mrs. Nelson Bedell—

* * *

AND SATURDAY also will bring home Miss Jean Sturdevant who comes from Montrose, N. Y., where she is chief dietitian at the Franklin Delano Roosevelt Veterans' hospital. Miss Sturdevant will be the holiday guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Sturdevant.

* * *

LOOKING forward to five whole days in Lincoln is Miss Mary Helen Mallory who arrives from Chicago next Tuesday morning to remain until Saturday as the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mallory, and her sister, Miss Sally Mallory.

* * *

UNDERSTAND that the Robert Hornes—Mr. and Mrs.—will be coming from Denver to spend the holiday season as the guests of Mr. Horne's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Horne, and also will visit Mrs. Horne's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hermans of Milford—

Incidentally, the Louis Hornes and Mr. and Mrs. Hermans have added one small Christmas stocking to the family array—it's for grandson, David who, of course, also will be here, and will arrive early with his mother. Mr. Horne will leave Denver in time to join his family for Christmas eve.

Gas Rate Hike Need Explained To City Committee

Increase Of 15 Pct. Is Proposed

Central Electric and Gas Co. explained the need to the city's power committee for the approximate 15 per cent increase in gas rates it has proposed to give it a 6.63 per cent return on its investment.

As explained by Company Attorney Lloyd Marti, the increase would affect only domestic users and commercial customers using gas for space heating purposes. Interruptible industrial gas customers are not included in the request, said Marti, as they have been absorbing the company's increased expenses through esculator clauses in their contracts.

The city's power committee, consisting of Mayor Victor E. Anderson and Councilmen Roy Sheaff and Clark Jeary, have taken the request under study. Anderson said his committee would ask Central for more information to clarify some of the material already presented.

"We want to feel," said Anderson, "that we have all the information needed to arrive at a fair rate."

Another Meeting

According to the mayor, a committee recommendation to the City Council will not be made Monday. The city group has scheduled another meeting for Saturday morning.

One of the items the city committee will probably ask for is what would happen in event the wholesale rate increases from Northern Natural Gas Co. were turned down by the Federal Power Commission and the courts. The committee has indicated it would favor a refund to city customers in event of such a reversal to Northern.

WILL IT REMAIN HERE?—Cub Scouts of Dens 4 and 5 of Pack 51 in University Place, stop to look at the controversial Bryan statu e on the State Capitol steps before touring the building. Cubmaster is Louis Legg. Den mothers are Mrs. Louis Stopek, Den 4 and Mrs. Howard Holmes, Den 5. (Star Photo.)

Northern has been operating under bond with several increases granted during the last year. Northern's increases have been questioned by the FPC, however, due to an alleged violation by Northern of FPC terms accompanying approval of the increase.

Two Factors

According to Marti, two factors are responsible for the increase.

1. Increased wholesale rates from Northern. Today, said Marti, the Gas Company is paying $504,000 a year more for its gas than it was in February of 1951.

2. An increase in wages, taxes, materials, supplies, etc.

Under the proposed new rate, said Marti, the company will realize a $438,765.06 increase in revenue, less than the wholesale increase alone.

Following is a table showing the present rate and the proposed gas rate according to the monthly usage of firm gas customers, households and small commercial:

Cu. Ft. Used	Present Rate	Proposed Rate

For cooking and hot water purposes, the average household uses about 3,000 cubic feet of gas monthly, said Marti, while heating, cooking and water calls for about 25,000 cubic feet per month during the coldest months.

Service Charge Hike

The proposed rates in the table include a 25 cents a month increase in the service charge. That figure goes from 50 to 75 cents a month.

According to Marti, if the proposed rate is put into effect, Lincoln will still have the lowest gas rates of any towns served by Central from Northern. After passing the 3,000 cubic feet usage mark through which Lincoln's service charge is absorbed, said Marti, Lincoln would be below both Omaha and Council Bluffs.

The company based the proposed rate on an investment of $5,424,387.36. The company's operating revenue adjusted to reflect the proposed rate would be $4,659,044 a year.

Operating expenses under the new rate would be $3,613,807.09 leaving a total operating revenue of $1,045,237.53. Deducted from that figure are fixed charges of $386,005.97 and federal income taxes of $299,787.87 leaving a net operating income of $359,443.74 or 6.63 per cent of their investment.

Gas Company officials attending the meeting were O. R. Mallat, auditor and accountant, Everett E. Baxter, rate engineer, E. C. Dean, vice president in charge of gas operations and Hal Thorson, district manager.

Three representatives of Northern also attended. They were Lawrence I. Shaw, general counsel, O. L. Sedgwick, director of marketing, and J. M. Newlands, rate department.

Wesleyan Overpowers Sterling, 87-57, For No. 5

By DON BRYANT
Star Sports Staff Member

In A top-notch display of tumbling, the Nebraska Wesleyan Plainsmen overpowered Sterling (Kan.) College here Wednesday night, 87-57.

Once again it was a depth-laden Wesleyan taking an early lead and then pouring it on in a game that was highlighted by fumbling and stumbling.

On the bright side was an almost air-tight Plainsmen defense that limited the opposition to only 15 fielders—one in the first quarter, four in each of the second and third periods and six in the final frame.

Sterling, apparently schooled in the fine art of offensive basketball only, was unable to stop the Plainsmen — led by Big Don Boldebuck and Jim Lightbody—and were baffled by the host club's sharp defensive play.

An example of Coach John Grayson's stress on keeping the other team from scoring is shown clearly in the box score figures. Warrior Bob Frisbie—who scored 32 points against Concordia Tuesday night—garnered only five points against the Plainsmen, all on free throws.

Boldebuck, who collected only three counters during his limited action in the first half, went on an eleven point scoring spree in the third canto and wound up with 16 points and top honors. Lightbody was right behind with 15 and Substitute Guard Glen Reed got 12 for the winners.

Wesleyan went right to work in the first quarter and, with the aid of a pair of fielders by LeRoy Seng and Boldie's three tallies, took a 15-6 lead at the buzzer.

Then Lightbody took over the artillery, dunking nine counters, and the Yellow and Brown left the court at intermission with a 37-25 margin. Center Dick Mounger's eight points paced the visitors in the first half.

Following the rest period, Boldebuck found the range and the third period score was 59-41.

In the final quarter, Lawrence Butler, a pint-sized workhorse all evening, poured through 11 points for Sterling, but Wesleyan countered with Reed's 12 plus a safe margin.

Footnotes . . . The pace-killing ball game was a birthday celebration for Referee Bill Keefer. . . A hard-worker and a comer for the Plainsmen is Reed. He never stops hustling and he has plenty of company in Vic Hoggins.

Hastings Hits Regis, 77-68

Lincoln Star Special

HASTINGS—The Hastings College Broncos won their first game in history from the Regis Rangers here Wednesday night, 77-68. It was the fifth game of the series between the two teams and the second of the season. Regis won earlier this season, 81-67.

The lead changed nine different times during the contest until Hilly Beck, all-state forward with the Minden Whippets last year, sent Hastings ahead for good, 49-48, with four minutes left in the third quarter.

Regis led 42-38 at the half and early in the first half owned a 34-25 margin, the largest of the evening.

Ron Zook led the Bronco scoring with 19 points, followed by Conrad Peterson with 18. Mike Shannon, hook shot artist, tallied 20 for Regis.

College View, Plattsmouth Vie

College View will attempt to keep its Ak-Sar-Ben Eight Conference record unblemished when the Viewmen tangle with Plattsmouth in their home opener at Irving Auditorium tonight.

Last week CV beat Omaha Westside, 44-40, for its first win in two starts.

Plattsmouth routed Westside, 55-28, and thus will be the favorite in tonight's contest.

The Blue Devils hold a big height advantage over College View. Plattsmouth is topped by 6-foot 5-inch Jim Jacques, and lists a sprinkling of six-footers on the squad.

The visitors could start a team averaging 6-2.

Among this lofty congregation would be John Ahrens and Dick Beverage, who scored 15 and 13 points respectively against Westside.

CV Coach Dick Short will start Louis Meinecke, Dick (Woody) Oaks, Jack Porter, Paul Westbrook and Bill Thierstein against the lanky Devils. Game time is 8 p.m., with the reserve game starting at 6:30.

Frosh Reds Hit Whites

In a freshman preliminary to the Nebraska Springfield game a Husker Red squad beat a White aggregation, 48-39. Wayne Westphal's eight points led the way for winners.

Ron Hansen had nine points for the Whites in a contest which featured Nebraska high school stars of last year.

Moore Wins Light-Heavy Title After 10-Year Chase

ST. LOUIS (INS)—Archie Moore, 36-year-old veteran who waited 10 years for his big opportunity, won the world's light heavyweight boxing title Wednesday night by punching out a unanimous 15-round decision over Joey Maxim at St. Louis.

A crowd of 12,610 fans paid a record St. Louis gross gate of $89,487 to see Moore, a local boy, hammer out a victory over Maxim.

The champion went out gamely, taking terrific punishment round after round and staving off the hard-socking, bob-and-weaving Moore's persistent but futile efforts to kayo him.

"Pal Joey" was handicapped from about the fifth round on by a badly-cut left cheekbone, via smashing overhand rights—Moore's kayo punch that never quite made it.

The 30-year-old Maxim, six years younger than the St. Louis veteran, also suffered from a cut right cheekbone, opened and kept open and bleeding profusely by Moore's terrific hooks.

The tide of the battle really came in a torrid 10th round when Moore let the champ have it with both hands. One of the most telling blows of the heated stanza was Archie's overhand right which exploded in Maxim's face and drove him reeling into the ropes.

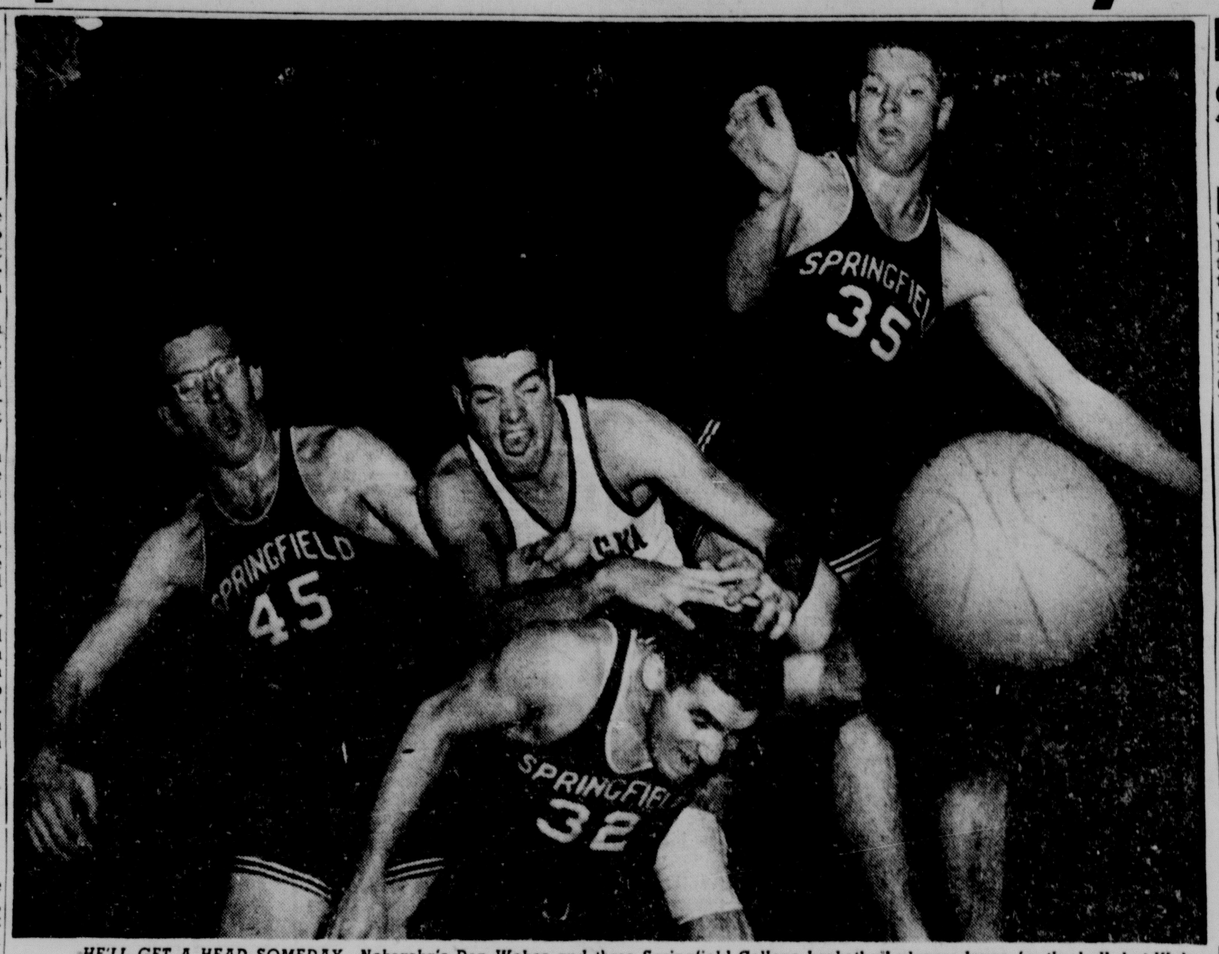

As Joey fought back with guts alone—he had no right and only a relatively feeble left—Moore pelted him with an uppercut to the jaw and another overhand right to the jaw.

From then on it was Moore who kept trying for the kayo. In the final round, Moore drove Maxim against the ropes with a booming left and right hand attack to the head and midsection.

In scoring, all three point-counters gave the bout to Moore. Referee Harry Kessler scored it 76-74, Judg Howard Hess 82-68, and Judge Fred Connell 87-63.

Maxim enjoyed a two-pound edge over the challenger, weighing 174½ to Moore's 172½.

Maxim held the title for one year and almost eleven months. It was on January 24, 1950, that Joey knocked out England's Freddie Mills in the 10th round in London to take the crown.

Huskers Beat Springfield

Seger Ties Scoring Record As Nebraska Wins, 82-73

By NORRIS ANDERSON
Sports Editor, The Star

TWO STINTS of folk dancing and a record 29-point performance by fiery Freddy Seger capped Nebraska's 82-73 victory over Springfield, Mass., College Wednesday night at the coliseum.

One exhibition of folk hoofing, presented by the women's physical education department, brought a halftime rain of pennies from a sparse audience of 2,000.

The other bit of terpsichore,, given by the Husker basketball team during the second quarter, nearly tossed away the game.

Here were the young Huskers doing everything right and zooming into a 26-14 first-quarter lead.

As the second period unraveled, the Scarlets suddenly forgot the noble arts of rebounding, meeting the ball and general aggressiveness. They resembled folk dancers.

Before they could find the key, a nimble giant named Allan Schutts had swished 11 points during the second quarter and carried his mates to a narrow halftime deficit of 40-41.

Coach Harry Good must have breathed a bit of fire into his laddibucks at halftime. For they bounded into a 49-43 lead in the first five minutes and were ahead 59-53 at the third-quarter gun.

As Mr. Schutts, body and soul of the Springfield attack, went out on fouls at the start of the fourth period, Husker hopes seemed to boom. Even after losing bow-legged Clayton Bywater, spitfire Elias Mulzac and ham-handed Frank Januszewski later in the period, the Springfields failed to give up.

With only 1:10 left of the evening, 5-foot 6-inch Larry McClements burglarized a Husker pass, bounded his fireplug carcass the length of the maples and plunked in a set-up. That cut the Husker margin to 76-72 and caused a sudden arising from the Husker bench by Prof. Good.

Too desperate to grasp their chance, the Springfield five then lapsed into a session of fouling. Seger, dunking four free throws in the final 30 seconds, iced the issue.

Seger's total, accumulated on nine field goals and 11 free throws, tied the all-time Husker scoring mark for a single game, set against South Dakota in 1951 by Bob Pierce. Seger, 6-4 Omaha junior, hit only nine of 19 chances from the field, but nailed 11 of 15 from the foul line.

Following Seger were 18-year-old Stan Matzke with 17 points, cool Joe Good with 14 and warm-tempered Don Weber with 12.

Seger and Bill Johnson, the 6-foot 7-inch pivot, shared rebound honors with 14 apiece. Weber collected 13.

Schutts' 21 points kept Springfield in the game.

Nebraska hit only 25 of 79 free throw tries, but picked off 32 of 46 from the free throw line. Springfield nailed 27 of 67 from the field and 19 of 30 from the foul line.

Nebraska, now boasting a 2-1 record, next meets California at the Coliseum, Dec. 23.

Loop Entry Assured As $31,888 Solicited To Date

By NORRIS ANDERSON
Sports Editor, The Lincoln Star

NOW that Lincoln's baseball minded citizens have assured Western League play at Sherman Field in 1953, a $50,000 corporation of stockholders has become the goal.

The "baseball or bust" committee reported Wednesday that a total of $31,888 had been pledged in shares of $10 each. That put Lincoln well over the goal of $25,000 given as a minimum by The Western League.

A soliciting committee of 33 citizens reported that $10,128 had been received since Saturday noon. This added to $21,760 previously turned in, brought the grand total.

The overwhelming response, which produced over 1,000 stockholders, prompted the committee to continue receiving pledges with a $50,000 corporation listed as the ultimate objective.

"We are now officially in the Western League for 1953, but will need more than what we have to produce a successful operation," said A. Q. Schimmel, president of the Lincoln Civic Baseball Association. Mr. Schimmel pointed to the $41,000 raised by Colorado Springs stockholders during the first year of operation, plus sales of $12,000 in stock the following year.

Future stockholders are urged to send their pledge cards to: The Lincoln Civic Baseball Association, 208 North 11th.

Lincoln's topped the $25,000 goal four days ahead of the Western League limit. League dons, meeting in Lincoln Sunday, gave Lincoln a week to raise the amount.

"We are very proud of Lincoln and we think the startling interest shown will make the city a successful independent operation," commented Senator Edwin C. Johnson (Demo-Colo), the league president.

So confident was Senator Johnson of Lincoln reaching its goal that he went ahead Sunday and made up the 1953 schedule with Lincoln included. No further meetings of league presidents will now be needed to discuss 1953 operations.

Schimmel heads a committee of four to plan the issuance of stock forming a corporation. The remainder of the committee consists of Harold Hoppe, Bill Murrell, Pat Minier and Arch Baley. They were all members of the "baseball or bust" group responsible for the Lincoln drive.

General Manager Bill Hayes of Sherman Field is now in the east negotiating for players. He already has optioned eight from major league organizations and other Western League teams have promised to each sell him one player.

Upon Hayes return, Jan. 4, the corporation plans will be completed.

Honorary chairman of the drive was Bobby Shantz, the Philly A's great little southpaw pitcher who makes his winter home in Lincoln.

"Lincoln sure showed me how important baseball was to the community," commented Shantz.

BOBBY Reynolds and Ed Husmann, the Huskers' representatives in the East-West game, will fly to San Francisco Friday . . . They will start practicing with the West club Saturday . . . After the game, Dec. 27, Reynolds and Husmann will be flown, along with the other participants, to the Rose Bowl game at Pasadena, Jan. 1 . . . Here's a bet that these Huskers do the old school proud, as did such predecessors as George Sauer and Clair Sloan.

OUR old Oklahoma pressbox running mate, Curt Gowdy, now a big league baseball mouthpiece, sends along his "dream team" of present-day and former diamond stars who have achieved spectacular success on both radio and television.

Both Joe DiMaggio and Tommy Henrich, former Yankee outfielders, have proved to be "naturals for television," writes Mr. Gowdy. Waite Hoyt, picther with the Yankees' 1927 club, became "a household name" in Cincinnati, he continues, as a result of his descriptions of the Reds' games. "Al Schacht, my choice for coach," says Mr. Gowdy, "besides running a thriving restaurant in New York, was much in demand as a guest star on television."

Ed Husmann

Of Phil Rizzuto he says: "The Yankee shortstop covers more territory on the airwaves than in his playing position." His "Sports Caravan" show is broadcast in 150 cities in the United States and Canada.

Other baseball greats named by Gowdy are Al Rosen of the Cleveland Indians; Gus Mancuso, formerly Carl Hubbell's battery mate on the New York Giants; Red Jones, formerly major league umpire; Ralph Kiner, of the Pittsburgh Pirates; and Dizzy Dean who won fame as a pitcher for the St. Louis Cardinals.

"Not all athletes are natural sportscasters," Gowdy asserts. "But the star with a winning personality and a sense of showmanship, able to think quickly and ad lib, can move into a career with high financial reward. They are able to bring two important assets to a microphone," Mr. Gowdy concludes. "First their names mean something to the public. Secondly, they have authority and personal knowledge of the game and of the personal relationships between players and managers."

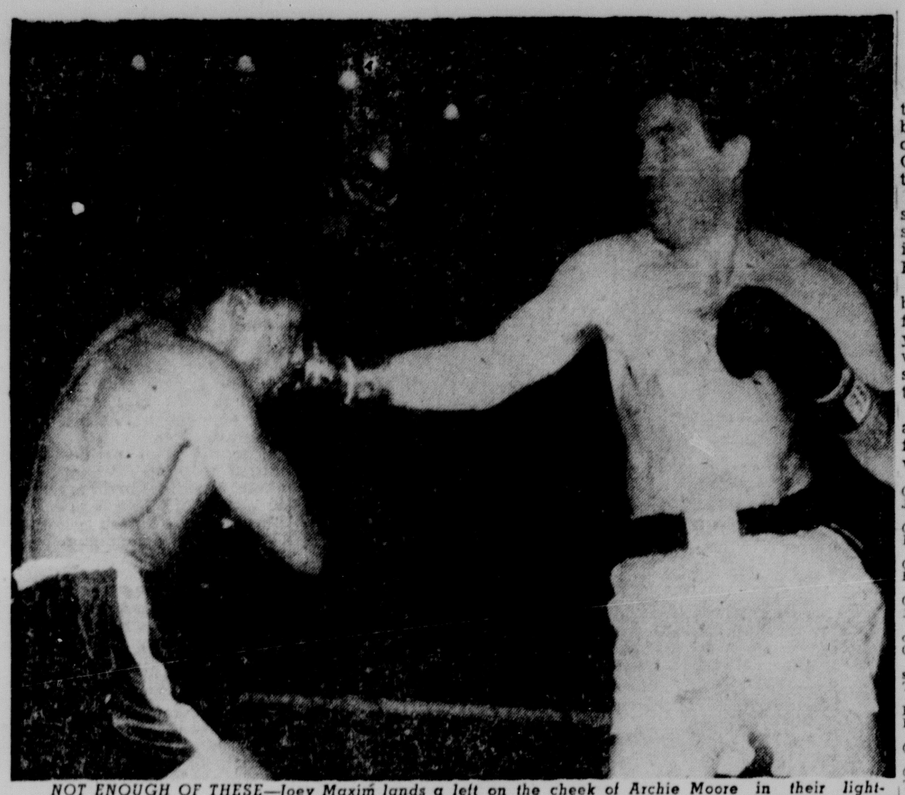

The "All-Star Sportscasters" lineup selected by Gowdy is as follows: Jackie Robinson, 1b, Frankie Frisch, 2b, Phil Rizzuto, ss, Al Rosen, 3b, Tommy Henrich, rf, Joe DiMaggio, cf, Ralph Kiner, lf, Dizzy Dean and Waite Hoyt, pitchers, Gus Mancuso, catcher, Leo Durocher, Manager, Al Schacht, coach.

Saturday Night Ring Extravaganza

Talent Galore On Tap For Boxing Card

FIGHT fans venturing to the Fairgrounds Arena Saturday night for the Lincoln Athletic Boxing Club's boxing extravaganza can rest assured there will be plenty of talent—large, small and medium sized—on hand.

In all, there are 35 top-notch boxers listed on the tentative roster of leather-pushers desiring to compete on the card.

Fist clubs sending representatives for the 12-bout—more will be added if necessary—card include: Ashland Legion, Offutt Air Force Base, Manning Boxing Club, Omaha Boxing Club, Central Police Station of Omaha and the Lincoln team.

And the fans won't be left wanting when it comes to the "blue-bloods" of this area. In addition to the above-average roster of entrants, four midwest Golden Gloves champions are slated for action.

The quartet includes: Middleweight Bob McKee of Lincoln; Welterweight Carl Romanelli of Offutt Field; Bantamweight Leonard Hudgins of the Omaha Boxing Club and Heavyweight Al Noble of Lincoln.

Noble, in his last Lincoln fight before entering the service, meets tough Wayne Womachil in the feature bout. Womachil is one of three boxers to have scored a TKO over Noble, who has a .935 winning percentage during his amateur career. The 195-pound Capital Citizen is out to erase that mark on his record by a knockout.

Bob McKee meets Billy Winston in a repeat of a top attraction at last month's Fairground card. Larry Emery of Lincoln will participate in the third top event. Emery's possible opponents include Romanelli, Ernie Trousdale or Johnny Springer, all talented mitt-men.

Out-of-town boxers and their clubs follow:

Offutt Field—Billy Winston (160), Ken Fisher (215), Bob McDonnell (205), Ray Drake (160), Manuel Mays (147), Carl Romanelli (147, Robert Allison (135), Anthony Senamo (135), Tom Headley (150), Morris Pascheria (138).
Manning—Wayne Womochil (179), Johnny Springer (146), Alfred Ludwig (120), Louis Cappaliano (130).
Omaha BC—Gene Buzzello (147), Jerr Beckwith (119), Don Cleary (190), Duane Eyberg (119), Fred Gagliola (135), Jack Leonard (119), Mike Kelly (111), Jerry Mahoney (126), Frank Rule (126), Bob Redfield (126), Clair Watson (147), Eddie Anderson (155), Leonard Hudgins (116), George White (135), Martin Ware (126).
Central Police—Dan Grant (137), Whitey Lohmeier (175), Fred Stoker (165), Billy Henshaw (112), Ernie Trousdale (147).
Ashland—Johnny Dillon.

Other promising Lincoln Athletic Boxing Club mittmen who will probably appear on the card are: Ken Kloe, 185; Stan Larchick, 111; Dick Trombla, 118; Hal Juckett, 156; Dallas Young, 157; Bill Mitchell, 170; Dean Jenkings, 140; Rich Taylor, 180; Bob Kloe, 160; and Jack Els, 133.

Simpson College Tips Doane, 65-56

INDIANOLA, Ia. — The Doane College basketball team dropped their third straight game on its eastern road junket here Wednesday night at the hands of Simpson College, 65-56. The Tigers return home today to prepare for action in the Nebraska College Conference.

A fateful second quarter that found Max Shindler meshing the lone field goal in the stanza helped bring about the Tigers doom. After dropping behind 17-11, the Tigers slipped to 33-20 at the half when gratis shots appeared their only offering.

Don Pisar with 11 field goals and two free throws copped the evening scoring honors with 24 points. Larry Tesar was second high for Doane with 13 tallies. Jerry Beane hit 21 to lead Simpson.

Ex-Red Officer Says Stalin Ordered Infiltration In U.S.

3 Schools Are Listed

WASHINGTON (INS)—A former Red Army colonel told House probers Wednesday that Russian Premier Stalin ordered Red infiltration of the U. S. government, big American charitable foundations, and certain universities.

Igor Bogolepov, once a Soviet foreign office international law expert, said that while serving in Moscow he saw the names of Columbia, Yale and Stanford Universities mentioned in secret reports as having been infiltrated by communists or their sympathizers.

Earlier New York importer Alfred Kohlberg testified that he twice warned Secretary of State-designate Dulles about Alger Hiss before Hiss was investigated on Communist charges.

'Secret Plan'

Kohlberg and Bogolepov appeared before the House committee investigating tax-free foundations.

The ex-Russian official declared that infiltration of such foundations as well as educational institutions was part of Stalin's secret plan to "push Communism through the brains of western intellectuals rather than through the hands of agrarians."

He said that after he broke with the Communists, the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, which Hiss once headed, the Rockefeller and Guggenheim Foundations, and Harvard, Yale and Columbia rejected his requests for financial aid to carry out anti-Red operations.

Legion Sending Out Christmas Gifts For Vets

Nebraska American Legion headquarters are sending out nearly a thousand Christmas packages for distribution to patients in veterans' hospitals and to veterans in other hospitals in the state.

The packagesc were contributed by Legion posts and individuals. Merchandise to the value of about $5 is contained in each package.

Candy, gum and razor blades are taboo, but there is wide range of useful items in the packages—stationery, toilet articles, pen and pencil sets, billfolds, handkerchiefs, cigarets, lighters, playing cards.

The three veterans' hospitals—Grand Island, Omaha and Lincoln—will receive packages for their patients. So will the soldiers and sailors' home at Grand Island; and veterans in the state hospitals at Hastings, Norfolk and Lincoln.

Twining Hits Alarmists Who See Disaster

LOS ANGELES (INS)—Gen. Nathan F. Twining said Wednesday he is disturbed by the "growing number of people so appalled by long-range airplanes carrying weapons of mass destruction that they foresee only disaster and doom."

The Air Force vice-chief of staff declared this "frantically defensive reaction" to atomic air power is destroying confidence in "the methods by which our strangth can be maintained."

In a speech prepared for delivery to the Los Angeles Junior Chamber of Commerce on the anniversary of the Wright brothers' first powered flight, Twining said that "except for the airplane and the atomic bomb our military position would have been desperate five years ago."

He added: Our own fate and that of civilization depends upon strength in the air that no enemy will dare to call down upon his head by starting a general war.

"Our ability to penetrate to the heart of the most massive enemy nation must be sustained at all cost."

U.S. Farmers Produced Record Crops In 1952

WASHINGTON (AP)—American farmers produced a record volume of agricultural products this year despite handicaps of drought, reduced acreages and mostly lower farm prices.

Furthermore, most of the crops were of generally excellent quality.

This achievement, which had been forecast earlier, was reported Wednesday in the Agriculture Department's final crop report of the year. It described the job done by farmers as "astonishing."

The production of crops—food, fiber, tobacco etc.—was the second largest in history, being surpassed only in 1948. A record output of livestock and livestock products—meat animals, eggs, poultry, dairy products and wool—pushed over-all farm production to a new high.

This was accomplished in the face of a severe drought that plagued much of the farming area at one time or another during the growing season, and despite the fact that farmers planted about 3 per cent less land than last year.

Furthermore, farm prices, which were lower this year, offered less incentive than a year ago.

The harvest was well rounded one.

Several crops were the second largest or record, including corn, winter wheat, soybeans, sugar cane and hops.

The only crops for which low harvests were reported were rye, buckwheat, grain sorghums, dry peas, sweet potatoes and sugar cane syrup.

North Platte Ex-Publisher Ira Bare Dies

NORTH PLATTE, Neb. (AP)—Ira L. Bare, 92, pioneer North Platte newspaper publisher and a prominent civic figure since 1881, died Wednesday. He had suffered a stroke on Monday.

Bare established the Lincoln County Tribune, a weekly paper in North Platte, in 1885, and operated it until 1920 when he sold it. For many years he was a columnist for the North Platte Daily Telegraph.

He also was co-editor with W. H. McDonald of a two-volume history of Lincoln County.

Bare was a former secretary of the North Platte Chamber of Commerce and since 1903 had been a director of the Mutual Building and Loan Association. He was made vice president of the association in 1934, holding that post at the time of his death. He was a charter member and former president of the North Platte Rotary Club.

He was born Nov. 24, 1860 in Mt. Union, Pa.

Bare is survived by a daughter, Mrs. W. H. Munger of North Platte; a son, Leslie S. Bare of Mobile, Ala.; a granddaughter, Mrs. James T. McClary of Boise, Idaho; and a great-granddaughter, Pamela Jane McClary.

U.S. Indictments Made On Auburn, Pawnee City Men

Merlin C. Beckmann, Rt. 3, Auburn, was charged by the Grand Jury with selling livestock mortgaged to the Farm Home Administration. The charge includes seven counts. Beckmann's bond was set at $1,500.

You won't need a clumsy converter to get the new stations with Zenith

It doesn't matter whether they're UHF or VHF. You'll have no problem receiving the new stations if your TV set is a Zenith.

You won't have to buy a UHF converter or adapter with extra knobs, dials, wires and other contraptions. Zenith Quality TV has built-in provision for UHF. Inexpensive channel strips precisely engineered and built for the UHF channels in this area, are added to your Zenith turret tuner in 15 minutes. Then, with a UHF antenna, you're all set.

And here's something else worth remembering: Zenith UHF reception has been tested and proved superior in thousands of homes during actual UHF telecasts first in Bridgeport, Conn., and now in Portland, Ore.

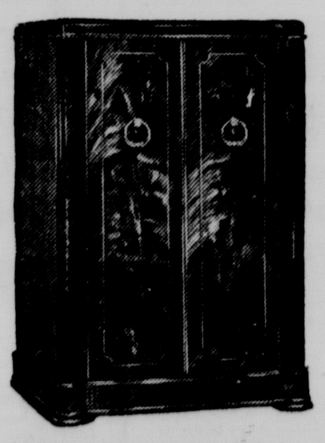

And you get all this besides!

- 25% greater distance with Zenith's new Million Dollar K-53 long distance chassis. Proved in 17 difficult "fringe" area tests against other leading makes.
- 20% brighter pictures. In the same field tests, Zenith pulled in clearer, fine-grained pictures with better black and white contrasts.
- Built-in antenna. No outside aerial needed in many locations with Zenith's built-in, pre-adjusted "Picturemagnet" antenna.
- One-knob tuning that's child's play. Getting the right picture and sound is so simple on a Zenith that you can do it blindfolded. Each station is pre-tuned for your location.
- No added "distractions" in the picture. Zenith's picture tube minimizes annoying glare and room reflections.
- A lot less interference. Zenith's exclusive "Fringe Lock" keeps picture free of most electrical interference.

State Law Ample Against Infiltration, Decker Says

Nebraska's law amply safeguards the state's public schools from infiltration by subversive teachers, State Superintendent F. B. Decker believes.

He was referring to the announcement by State Sen.-elect Terry Carpenter of Scottsbluff that he intends to introduce a resolution in the state Legislature calling for a full-scale investigation of the state's school system to find out if Communism is being taught in Nebraska.

Decker pointed to a 1949 legislative act requiring school boards to appoint from members a three-member Americanism committee "to carefully examine" and "to approve all textbooks used in the teaching of American history and civil government in the school to assure themselves as to the character of all teachers employed and their knowledge and acceptance of the American form of government."

This provision, which places the responsibility on the school boards, in addition to the loyalty oath requirement passed in 1949, afford "strong protection for the state's public schools," Decker said.

Checking Needed

But State Treasurer Frank Heintze, an active Legion member, said he believed books should be checked at the publishers before going into circulation.

"Maybe some patriotic group like the Legion should have books sent to them, so they could be screened at the source," he commented.

Meanwhile, Joseph Vinardi, chairman of the state American Legion committee on Un-American Activities denied ever attacking anything, saying he merely "exposed and condemned" use of a book written by authors of "disrepute." He explained: "If I send my child to school to learn about crime, I want him to learn from a book by J. Edgar Hoover and not Lucky Luciano."

Now that the "character" of the authors has been exposed, professors should act accordingly, he said.

Robert Sakai, who will instruct the second semester history class in which the book under fire was used, said he will use no textbook, relying on newspapers for reference material. This has been Sakai's plan for some time, he said.

Porcelain Coins Prized

VIKING, Canada (AP) — Kurt Loeschner estimates the unique coins he smuggled out of East Germany when he came here a year ago are worth perhaps $6,000. They are porcelain coins made in Germany in 1921 but found then to be too fragile for general use.

U.N. Asks France To Open Morocco Talks

U.S. Drops Support Of Move

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—Over last-minute opposition of the United States, the U. N. Political Committee Wednesday called on France to open urgent talks with Morocco on self-government.

The U. N. call was more moderate than one backed by the Arab-Asian bloc, but a Moroccan independence leader termed it a "moral victory."

The vote was 40 for, five against, with 11 abstentions.

The Moroccan vote cleared the way for debate on demands by Brazil, Mexico, Lebanon and The Netherlands for a speedup in writing a treaty of independence for Austria.

The United States, Britain, France and Russia have been trying to agree on a treaty since 1947. The three Western powers have accused Russia of stalling.

France was absent as the committee voted on the Arab-Asian and Latin American resolutions on Morocco. The Arab-Asian resolution's operative sections were defeated, 25-27, with three abstentions.

A French spokesman said France would continue to ignore U. N. actions on Morocco and Tunisia. France contends that its administration of the two North African protectorates is an internal French matter and no business of the U. N.

Elsewhere in the U. N.:

1. Andrei A. Gromyko of Russia blasted the U. N. as incompetent to deal with the Austrian treaty of independence. He and other members of the Soviet Bloc declared they would boycott the debate. Gromyko deserted the Political Committee.

2. India moved to air in full dress debate Secretary General Trygve Lie's policies regarding U.N. employees accused of being subversives. An Indian demand for the debate is expected to come before the Steering Committee Thursday.

3. The Steering Committee is expected Thursday to decide to suspend the Assembly from Dec. 23 until Feb. 24.

4. Sen. Alexander Wiley (R-Wis), who is expected to be chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee in the new administration, accused Russia of "aggression against its former allies in the free world." "Is the Soviet Union trying to kill the United Nations?" Wiley asked during a debate on the deadlocked issue of admitting new members.

Alan Bayley Gets Full State Pardon

Alan Bayley, 21, Lincoln, was granted a full pardon by the state pardon and parole board Wednesday. It will permit him to enter a navy reserve officers' training corps class at Iowa State College where he is an engineering student.

He admitted to the board that he had been rejected for admittance to the University of Nebraska, which he had previously attended, while he was on parole after being convicted of assault with intent to rape. He served 21 months in the men's reformatory and nine months on parole.

Nine other reformatory inmates were granted paroles. They were:

Andrew A. Saurer, 31, Fergus Falls, Minn., breaking and entering and grand larceny, Adams, 21-27 months, 1951.

Richard L. Weiss, 28, Lakeland, Fla., uttering forged instrument, Douglas, 3-5, 1950.

Raymond Smith, 22, Omaha, burglary, Douglas, 1-3, 1952.

Ray J. Phillips, 24, Omaha, burglary, Douglas, 1-3, 1951.

Alfred Schoenthal, 25, Lincoln, burglary, Lancaster, 3-6, 1950.

Leonard E. Yates, 20, Lincoln, issuing check with intent to defraud, Lancaster, 2, 1951.

Tony Polanka, 21, Columbus, second degree arson, Polk, 1-2, 1952.

Frederick J. Schwartzlander, 19, Omaha, auto theft, Seward, 2-5, 1952.

Thomas E. Wayland, 31, Baltimore, possession of forged instrument, York, 1-2, 1952.

Truman Accepts Leake Resignation

WASHINGTON (INS) — President Truman Wednesday accepted the resignation of Paul R. Leake as collector of customs in San Francisco.

The President told the official, whose resignation is effective as of last Monday, that the Treasury Department has commended the way he conducted his office. Mr. Truman added he is "most appreciative" of the services Leake has rendered

Morse Favors Taft As Majority Leader

WICHITA, Kan. (AP) — Sen. Wayne Morse, Oregon independent, said Wednesday he favors Sen. Robert A. Taft for Senate majority leader because the Ohio Republican "unlike Eisenhower, does not compromise his principles."

Here for a student forum speech at the University of Wichita tonight, Morse told a reporter: "I disagree with senator Taft on the merits of many issues but I have the highest respect for Senator Taft's devotion to his convictions."

Outgoing Yule Mail Peak Expected To Hit Post Office Thursday And Friday

Lincoln Post Office employees are preparing to handle a mountain of Christmas packages Thursday and Friday. Superintendent of Mails, Gerald Jones expects the peak number of parcel post packages will be mailed on those days.

There won't be much rest for the mailmen between the peak for outgoing packages and the peak for incoming mail which is expected on Monday, Dec. 22.

The number of packages mailed Wednesday was not as heavy as Tuesday's load, Jones said, but more letters were cancelled—to even things out.

Tuesday's figures, which cannot be compared with last year's figures as Dec. 15 fell on a Sunday in 1951, are as follows:

Parcel post	64,618 pounds.
First class mail	9,951 pounds.
Other classes	20,285 pounds.

Lincoln residents will notice practically no interruption in mail service over the Christmas holidays except on the 25th itself.

In accordance with directives from Washington, the Lincoln station will be closed to the public Christmas Day. The regular holiday collections will be made that day and packages and perishables will be delivered.

On Friday, the day after Christmas, there will be business as usual except the absence of rural mail deliveries. There will be no change in the Saturday schedule.

'Meanest Thief' Found

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — Another candidate for the "meanest thief" title is the bu lar who broke into a general store recently and stole about $1,000 worth of groceries and merchandise. The thief also took $25 in change from a jar containing contributions for flowers for a funeral.

50 More Vocational Guidance Books Given Library By Kiwanis

Nearly 550 vocational guidance books—including the 50 presented this week—have been donated to the Lincoln Public Library by the Lincoln Kiwanis Club during the past 20 years.

With subjects ranging from teaching and airplane careers to occupational therapy, petroleum or job hunting, the books exemplify a 20-year project of the Kiwanis Club's Committee on Vocational Guildance and cover what Charles Dalrymple Jr., city library director, estimates to be 60 specific vocations.

The project began in about 1931, recalls Curry Watson, Kiwanis secretary, when R. V. Goodrich, then director of vocational guidance of Lincoln Public Schools, was chairman of the committee. The present chairman is Emery Blue.

Until this year when 50 books were given, the organizations usually presented 20 to 25 books. This year enough copies of each title were purchased to provide one for University Place, College View, Northeast, Havelock and Bethany Libraries as well as the Main Library. In the past only one copy was bought.

Each year the library staff submits a list of suggested books to the Kiwanis Committee, which are then purchased by the library. Each book is labeled and placed in the regular library classifications, authough, as Librarian Dalrymple explains, a special shelf previously was provided until it was decided that this practice isolated the books.

Although mostly for high school students, the books nevertheless, are helpful to college and older students, the librarian says.

An attempt is made to get a wide variety of vocations and Chairman Blue says it is hoped to include eventually a selection representing vocations of all Kiwanis members.

Present Kiwanis president is Herbert Henderson.

Murder On Increase

CHICAGO (INS) — A Chicago police report Wednesday showed that murder in the city has increased 10½ per cent this year.

It is the first increase since 1948, when a 14-year high was recorded.

The homicide detail report showed 278 killings from Jan. 1 to Dec. 15 this year. These include 36 cases not yet solved.

Civil War Drummer, Former Slave Dies; Lived To Be 114

DES MOINES (INS)—Funeral service plans were being made Wednesday for Ben Taylor, former Negro slave and Civil War drummer boy, who died in a Des Moines hospital at the age of 114.

Taylor, who died of pneumonia, fought with the South in the Civil War and after that held many jobs, one of them obtaining wild animals from the jungles of Africa and bringing them to circuses in this country.

Since coming to Des Moines about 70 years ago he did yardwork and odd jobs.

Living to an age that is almost twice the normal life span never seemed unusual to Ben. He often told friends that his grandmother had lived to be 125.

Paralyzing Jap Strikes Are Ended

Coal Mines, Electric Power Plants, Involved

TOKYO (Thursday) (INS) — Japan's crippling strikes in coal mines and electric power plants ended Wednesday under threat of government intervention.

The coal mine strike, one of the biggest and most costly in Japan's history, ended after 61 days with 230,000 coal miners returning to the pits.

The walkout, involving a loss of 11,570,000 man-days of labor and 6 million tons in coal output, crippled rail transport, plunged industry into semi-paralysis and forced a drastic reduction in the supply of artifical gas.

Award Accepted

It was called off by the coal miners' union fifteen minutes before a government emergency injunction would have made the strike illegal.

The miners accepted a central labor relations board mediation award calling for a seven per cent wage increase, a monthly incentive bonus of 300 yen (83 cents), a 5,000 yen ($13.88) loan and a 5,000 yen allowance.

Management refused to abide by the award following conferences among coal mine operators, but Deputy-Premier Taketora Ogata predicted management acceptance of the award as a result of government pressure.

The three month long series of strikes in the nation's electric power plants also was terminated Wednesday when unions in Tokyo and surrounding areas reached an agreement with power companies.

Singapore Getting Rich

SINGAPORE (AP) — The Communist conquest of China has caused capital which formerly found its way to that country to pour into Singapore from all parts of the world, says the British colony's financial secretary, W. C. Taylor.

The low rate of interest and the solid backing of sterling are factors in the movement of capital here. Although there is a slump in the textile trade at present, all other trades are thriving, Taylor reports.

Crosby Intends To Cut 1953 Mill Levy

.38 Slash Is His Aim

Gov.-elect Robert Crosby said Wednesday he hopes to cut the state's mill levy.

Crosby said he has a "fixed intention" of slashing the state levy for 1953 at least .38 of a mill, or 38 cents per $1,000 valuation, below the 5.88 mill levy for 1952.

He said he based this intention on the present valuation of property at slightly over the three billion dollar mark.

The 5.88 mill levy of 1952 he mentioned did not include the 1.1 mill building fund levy, nor does the 5.50 mill maximum he has in mind include that levy.

The North Platte man said his intended reduction is a minimum one, and that he hoped he might find it possible to make a bigger cut in the levy.

Crosby admitted that his "fixed intention" might bring him to an "uncomfortable position when I encounter the pleas of the spending agencies."

But, he added, it has been 20 years since a new governor, and the Legislature he works with, has made a levy reduction. He emphasized that whatever he did as governor would have to be approved by the Legislature which has the final word in making up the biennial budgets.

In the past, the Governor-elect commented, it has been the practice to measure the desires of spending agencies and try to meet them. He proposes, he said, to "measure the line beyond which taxes cannot be enacted from the taxpayer."

The 5.88 mill levy this year raised $18,156,472. If valuations remained the same a 5.50 mill levy as Crosby proposes would raise $16,983,095. If valuations remained the same in 1953 and the Legislature appropriated the same amounts as two years ago, Crosby would have to cut about $1,173,377 yearly off the budget askings to reach his goal.

But the assessed valuation for 1953 will not be determined until next August. The State Assistance Department is expected to end up the present biennium, closing next June 30, with about a three million dollar surplus, but the University of Nebraska and other divisions are asking more money.

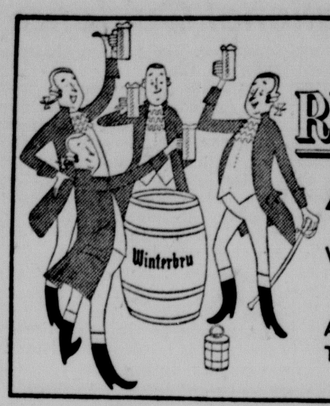

Hnece Crosby cannot immediately tell just how much he might have to cut and where. Meanwhile, no breakdown has yet been made of the total asked by the various agencies from the state general fund, into which the mill levy money and various fees, etc., all go.

Crosby characterized his objective as "a self discipline that will serve the best interests of Nebraska."

"Taxes in this country are close to being oppressive. High taxes and their consequences are not a favorable climate for freedom.

"If we want a reduction in taxes, there is no reason to except state government," he said.

Here is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

ONE MAN'S OPINION By Walter Kiernan

(Distributed by International News Service)

The woman who swung a chair at a burglar and hit her husband is the envy of several housewives of our acquaintance.

☆ ☆ ☆

To every woman must come sometime the desire to pick up a chair and brain the breadwinner in one of his less winning moments but few get the perfect setup to do it.

☆ ☆ ☆

Here is a woman who is in the enviable position of being able to say "I'm sorry dear!" and make it stick . . . and he still has a hole in his head.

☆ ☆ ☆

This is what might be described as "the perfect accident" but it is mighty peculiar when a woman who can spot the wrong lipstick on her husband at six blocks can't spot the right head at six paces.

☆ ☆ ☆

Anyway if there are women around who would like to take a protected swing at their husbands the lesson is clear . . . hire a burglar.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE

Here's How To Work It

A X Y D L B A A X R
is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this example A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophies, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

Stocks Barely Hold Own In Dull Day

NEW YORK (INS)—The stock market barely held its own Wednesday in a spiritless session highlighted by the customary year-end cross currents.

A selected list of specialty issues advanced 1 or more points but these gains were offset by backwardness in most pivotal favorites.

In a move to balance the tax books for 1952, many traders cashed in profits at the same time that they were absorbing losses in laggardly issues. A good part of the available funds were promptly reinvested in stocks believed to have favorable prospects in the new year.

General Dynamics was a standout performer with a maximum rise of 2 points to a new high. Other issues to move up a point or more at one time or another included Georgia Pacific Plywood, Miami Copper, Sheraton Corp., Texas Gulf Producing, Texas Pacific Coal and Oil, and U. S. Gypsum.

Many highly-regarded stocks were among the laggards. American Telephone was off nearly a point at one time, while losses of major fractions were suffered by DuPont, Kennecott, and Standard Oil of New Jersey. General Electric and U. S. Steel were well taken around previous closing levels.

Among the rails, Northern Pacific and Union Pacific were up fractionally, as against losses of more than a point each of their lows in Santa Fe, and Missouri Pacific preferred. Alleghany common quieted down after its spectacular churning around Tuesday.

Consolidated Edison was active and fractionally higher in the utilities.

Volume tapered off rather abruptly to around 1,600,000 shares.

Curb stocks and big board bonds also were mixed. Grains were under pressure in commodities.

Wheat, Corn Sink To Seasonal Lows

CHICAGO— Wheat and corn sank to new seasonal lows and other cereals also weakened in quite active dealings on the Board of Trade Wednesday.

In wheat, all contracts except May hit seasonal bottoms. In corn only the July contract esacped. December rye and September soybeans also were at new lows.

Wheat closed 1⅛-1½ lower, corn 1⅜-1⅝ lower, oats ⅝ lower to ⅛ higher, rye ¾-1½ lower, soybeans 1½ to 2 cents lower and lard 5 to 12 cents a hundred pounds higher.

The selling pressure started to exert itself immediately after the opening, concentrating first on soybeans then spreading to other pits. One reason offered for the weakness in soybeans was the mark down in soybean meal quotations, at their lows for the season Tuesday.

Meal prices were unchanged Wednesday and a slightly firmer tone was noted in soybean oil. Japan bought a cargo of soybeans.

Part of wheat's weakness was attributed to selling by disappointed speculative longs. Brazil bought four million bushels of wheat late Tuesday, but the bread grain failed to open higher.

In its weekly crop summary the Weather Bureau noted that, while wheat prospects have improved, more moisture is needed in south-central and southwestern Nebraska and in western sections of Kansas, Oklahoma and Texas.

One reason for the slump in corn was weakness in the cash market. Cash prices were 1 to ½ cent lower. No. 2 yellow corn still was commanding a premium over the December future, but it was only 1½ cents.

DPA Increases Steel Use Allowance To New Record

One Million More Cars Authorized

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government Wednesday authorized makers of automobiles and other civilian goods to increase their use of steel in the second quarter of next year up to 70 per cent of the amount they consumed before the outbreak of the Korean War.

The Defense Production Administration said this is the highest allocation of steel since the present mobilization program began.

It is about 16 per cent higher than for the third quarter of this year.

Ralph Trigg, acting DPA chief, said the bigger allotments should permit in the second quarter:

New Cars

1. Production of 1,250,000 passenger cars and 315,000 trucks.

2. Increased construction of small schools, hospitals, power and transportation facilities and public works.

3. The highest rate of highway construction ever achieved in this country, but still slightly below requested levels due to a tight supply of structural steel.

4. Full development of the atomic energy construction program as planned, along with meeting full defense needs of defense agencies.

5. New housing construction at the rate of one million living units annually.

6. Production of 9,000 freight cars a month, the highest rate since scarce materials were put under government control.

Record Of Spring Wheat Is Gloomy

Spring wheat's record, at least in the southeastern and south central parts of Nebraska, is not encouraging, according to results of tests by University of Nebraska agronomists, and no recommended varieties are listed for those portions of the state.

During 13 years of testing, spring wheat averaged 15.5 bushels per acre in those sections, only slightly better than winter wheat when the latter was planted on Feb. 15—better than four months late.

The agronomists say that oats and barley generally will produce greater returns than spring wheat. If weather conditions allow a farmer in these areas to plant winter wheat between now and Feb. 1, chances are that it would give returns equal to spring wheat.

Winchell Sued For $1 Million

NEW YORK (AP)—Walter Winchell, columnist and commentator, was sued for libel Wednesday in twin suits totaling $1,525,000 brought in Supreme Court by the New York Post and its editor, James A. Wechsler.

Wechsler is seeking $775,000 daamges and the Post $750,000.

The suits charge Winchell tried in his syndicated column and in radio and television broadcasts to convey the impression the Post and Wechsler were supporters of the Communist party and disloyal to the U.S.

There was no immediate comment from Winchell.

Olney Foundation Not Involved In Transaction

The Lincoln Star in a story Tuesday morning incorrectly stated that the Continental National Bank was granted a three-fifths interest in the Olney Foundation and the Medical Arts Building Co. obtained a one-fifth interest.

The Foundation sold the property at 800 So. 13th to the Medical Arts Co. and to the bank, trustee, and have no interest in the property at this time.

The transaction, filed in the Register of Deeds office, conveyed the property from the Foundation to the Company and to the bank, trustee.

The bank and the company mortgaged the building to the Security Mutual Life Insurance Co. for $75,000.

The Olney Foundation sold the property to provide part of the funds for the new Olney Clinic Hospital at 901 So. 48th, which opened this week. The Olney Foundation is a charitable trust organization, which Dr. R. C. Olney established and of which he is medical director.
